PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The reciprocity truck licensing war waxed hotter today as New Jersey refused a truck and Maryland began an active campaign, with New York, Virginia, Delaware and West Virginia reported ready to enact retaliatory measures against Pennsylvania.

The war was inaugurated yesterday when Pennsylvania started enforcement of a law requiring vehicles engaged in interstate commerce to obtain Pennsylvania license tags before traversing the highways of the state.

Retaliatory Measures.
Harold G. Hoffman, commissioner of motor vehicles in New Jersey, ordered a retaliatory measure on all Pennsylvania trucks using New Jersey highways. Hundreds of trucks were halted at bridges linking the two states as a result. Some drivers waited orders from owners while hundreds of others obtained tags in the different states.

At daybreak today many scores of trucks still bearing their cargoes, some of which were perishable, were parked at Morrisville, Philadelphia and along other points of the Delaware river, awaiting the orders of the owners.

Must Get Licenses.
Maryland state policemen were stationed at roads along the Keystone state line under orders of C. Austin Baughman, commissioner of motor vehicles, to halt Pennsylvania trucks that had made 15 trips into the state since October 15, the date when the Pennsylvania law became effective.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Armistice Day comes one week from Friday, and the schools and civic organizations are planning for it.

When schools decide that a presidential election is important enough to conduct straw polls, then it is an election. Or that's what an oldtimer told Pa New yesterday. As time passes, students in the Senior and Junior high schools, and at elementary buildings as well, are rapidly coming to enlighten themselves on the current national topics. And they should.

A little boy was seen carrying a sled over East North street last evening. That's one chap who believes in being prepared. The runners on the sled appeared to have been recently sharpened.

All indications this morning pointed to the fact that the frost was on the pumpkins during the night. The grass looked as if a very thin falling of snow had occurred but the frozen moisture was only the coating of frost.

When Pa New passed the North street bridge Wednesday, he observed that some person or persons had been defacing the bridge by writing upon it the names of the presidential candidates.

Henry Dysart, law department inspector, is working as a city detective in the place of City Detective Cy Horner, who is ill. Dysart served as a motorcycle patrolman, plain clothesman, night lieutenant and police chief.

SIX DARING BANDITS HOLD CASHIER'S FAMILY; ROB MARIENVILLE BANK

Spectacular Robbery Occurs
In Small Town In Northwestern Pennsylvania

Bandits Wait All Night For Bank Vault To Open—
Get $7,500

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

MARIENVILLE, Pa., Nov. 3.—Six daring bandits flashed out of this little community today after successfully executing the most spectacular bank stick-up in Pennsylvania's history—the looting of the Gold Standard National Bank of Marienville.

Their "take" was definitely placed at $7,500 following a check-up by bank officials. Hours after the hold-up, state police were without a clue to their whereabouts.

The six bandits, two to a car, drove quietly into Marienville last night. They parked their three cars separately in the village streets. Marienville has no police force. No suspicions were aroused as the men coolly removed the license plates from each car.

Enter Cashiers Home.
Fred R. Johnston, cashier of the bank, resides in a little apartment above the bank vault. The bandits pushed their way into the apartment.

Here they found Johnston, his wife and daughter, Eleanor, 18, and Fred Pickens, son of the editor of the local newspaper, who had a "date" with the daughter.

All were herded into the living room. The bandits ripped bedsheets off the beds and with adhesive tape and wire. All were gagged and seated in the Johnston reception room.

Throughout the night the strange party waited for the time-lock to swing the massive vault open. Occasionally, the bandits removed the gags to give their victims a breathing spell.

Bandits Coolly Alert.
The bandits remained coolly alert when a brother of Johnston called at the apartment at 6:30 o'clock this morning. With the bandits' guns "covering" her, Eleanor called out to the brother that Johnston was ill in bed.

At 8 o'clock, the leader of the sextette snapped his watch shut, called out "Go" and took Johnston into the bank. The remaining five spread out in the streets and

Road Projects Nearly Finished

Only Few More Days Of Work Remains On New
Wilmington Road

Heavy work on the New Wilmington road, via Highland avenue, was finished yesterday, and a large force of men who have been working on this project have been laid off.

There still remains some work to be done on the berms and the filling is yet to be completed before the job is completed.

The New Bedford to Pulaski road is also nearing completion, it was stated today. Both projects will likely be finished up and the final oil applied next week.

Motor Inspection Gets 86 Per Cent Of Autos In State

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Nov. 3.—Eighty-six per cent of the motor vehicles of Pennsylvania were inspected during the compulsory inspection period ending September 30, according to compilations in the Department of Revenue today. In the preceding campaign 95.3 per cent of the vehicles were examined.

Will Rogers says:

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Don't you all kinder wish that the president of our country wouldn't have to run around all over the land getting upon a soap box to shout his merits like a backwoods Congressman running for re-election?

That's why a president's term should be for six years. No re-election, and be retired on half salary. Then he serves with dignity right up to the finish, and don't have to take part in this mess of promises, accusations and ballyhoo.

We thought when the radio was perfected it wouldn't be necessary to drag a president around like a circus. But no, the state leaders must satisfy their vanity.

But after all there is very little dignity, very little sportsmanship, or very little anything in politics. Only "get the job and hold it."

President May Broadcast From Moving Train

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Hoover today was seriously considering a plan to dramatize his last radio appeal for votes Monday night with the click of the wheels and the blowing of the whistle of his special train.

The plan is to have a mobile broadcasting set installed in a car on the train and to have the president make his speech while the listeners hear the click-click of his train's wheels and the blasts from the locomotive as his special speed across the western desert carrying him to his Palo Alto, Calif., home.

Such a broadcast was utilized some months ago by a commercial sponsor.

ERIE OFFICIALS MAKE INSPECTION

Youngstown, New York Office
Ride Over City
Branch Of Road

Aboard a two-coach special train fully equipped for track-inspection purposes, Erie railroad operating officials from Youngstown and New York came to New Castle district this afternoon to inspect the New Castle-to-Pulaski section of the road's Perona branch.

Section Foreman Peter Rush and his corps of trackmen last year won the official award for the best-maintained section on the branch. It netted Rush a $100 prize.

On board the observation car as the train passed south toward New Castle Junction and later north again, enroute toward Kent, O., were Superintendent J. W. Graves of the Mahoning division, of Youngstown; D. J. Madden, chief trainmaster, also from Youngstown. With them were high officials of the Erie's maintenance-of-way department out of New York.

The officials' train came here from Cleveland.

TRUCK SIDESWIPES PHILLIPS AUTOMOBILE

Blodwen Phillips, 518 Lyndal street, reported Wednesday that she was driving the car of Raymond T. Phillips, south on North Mill street at Syracuse, Way, as the Railway Express company truck driven by Arthur Prioletti, enroute in the same direction, went to pass on the left of the Phillips car. The truck sideswiped and damaged the Phillips car to some extent.

Mrs. O. F. Russell, Butler and Mrs. Harry Graham, Greenville, were Wednesday guests of Mrs. Josephine Kison, Park avenue.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Rested from his strenuous invasion of New England, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt was to go to New York today for the final drive of the presidential campaign.

The governor planned to leave the mansion shortly before noon, motor to Hyde Park and have lunch with his mother, Mrs. James Roosevelt, and then continue on to his New York home, arriving there about six o'clock.

During the early part of the evening he will motor to New Jersey City and Newark, where Frank Hague, Democratic boss of New Jersey, has told him that "tens of thousands" of Democrats and "former Republicans" will be waiting to greet him.

Will Not Speak.
Governor Roosevelt said today he would not speak in either city, but that he would content himself with "waving his battered old hat."

Mayor Hague has predicted, however, that the crowds in Newark and Jersey City will be so large he will not be able to get through unless he makes a brief speech from his car.

This will mark the governor's second invasion of New Jersey. During the latter part of August he spoke at Seagirt. It was on that occasion, and for the only time during the campaign, that he devoted his entire speech to a demand for speedy repeal of the 18th amendment, and pending such action, modification of the Volstead law.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A pretty 16-year-old runaway girl, Barbara Marshall, of Elizabeth, Ind., was believed held by kidnapers here today.

Betty Berry, also 16, who fled with Barbara from the small town a few months ago, told police they had been living in North Side hotels, but that their money ran out last night.

As they were walking along a street, two men invited them to ride in their car, Betty said. When they refused, the pair seized Barbara and sped away.

Police launched a search for her.

Kind Neighbors Husk Corn For Farmer Hurt While Dragging Road

Friends and neighbors of Joseph G. Russell, Little Beaver township farmer, who was recently injured in a road accident, brought joy and gladness to his heart one day recently when they assembled and husked his corn.

Mr. Russell was injured while using a road drag on the public highway near his home. The drag caught on a root and the jerk threw Mr. Russell across the iron frame work. He had two ribs broken and one kidney badly crushed.

Realizing that he would be unable to get his farm work done this fall, Mr. Russell has been greatly worried since the accident. He had a field of corn to husk. This was his biggest worry, but it disappeared like a frost before the sun when 62 of Mr. Russell's friends appeared.

They were armed with husking pegs and wore their working clothes. They went to work on Mr. Russell's cornfield at seven a. m. on last Thursday. At 2:30 p. m. 600 bushels of corn were in the crib.

Mr. Russell's worries, so far as his corn crop was concerned, were ended.

Fund Drive Is Making Progress; Now Over $41,000

WOMEN IN CHARGE OF TODAY'S PROGRAM

Mrs. C. H. Johnson Speaks—
Workers Enthusiast That Goal Will Be Reached

With an additional $4,191 reported at the noon luncheon in The Castleton today, the workers in the United Community Chest and Mayor's Relief fund campaign are now within striking distance of the $65,000 goal which is their objective. The total today was $41,336, with $23,664 needed before the goal is reached.

General Chairman James M. Smith Sr. made today's meeting a woman's meeting, in view of the wonderful work which the women's division has been doing in the present campaign.

Mrs. H. M. Kirk was introduced as the chairman of today's meeting. She stated that the very first solicitation she had made this morning happened to be Mr. Spear and Miss Mint, and she came away victorious with a dollar from each.

Mrs. Johnson Speaks.
Mrs. Kirk introduced Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, president of the Community Chest.

"When we get into a campaign of this kind, we are very prone to think of the past and to compare the present campaign with those of previous years," Mrs. Johnson stated. "There are a number of things in which this campaign is far superior to any previously held. One of these is in the attendance of the workers and the enthusiasm being shown by them. It is most important."

Blind Couple Get Marriage License

Permit To John S. Corwin And Lenora Carr, Akron, O.,
First Issued Here

John S. Corwin, 65, and Miss Lenora Carr, 63, both of Akron, O., and both blind, secured a marriage license at the prothonotary's office yesterday. They were a nice and prosperous looking couple and were piloted to the prothonotary's office by a mutual friend.

Mr. Corwin explained that he had lost the use of his eyes in a railroad accident when he was 21 years of age. Miss Carr said that she had been blind since she was 14 years of age. She has employed her time as a teacher of the blind.

While the license was being issued Mr. Corwin pulled a match out of his pocket to learn the time of day. It was a specially constructed watch. He told the time by feeling the position of the hands which were not covered by a crystal.

So far as known this is the first marriage license ever issued here to a totally blind couple, although there are records of licenses having been issued to deaf and dumb couples.

Broken Heart, Horse Ends It All

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Herbert Hoover—bearing the hopes of the Republican party squarely on his shoulders—leaves Washington this afternoon for one final long-range cast of the political die that will determine whether next Tuesday's election brings him victory or defeat.

The fateful November 8 will find Mr. Hoover climaxing a last-minute transcontinental campaign tour at his old home in Palo Alto, Cal., casting his own vote for re-election. Between 4:30 this afternoon and noon of election day, he will have traversed virtually every section of the country that observers now call "doubtful."

Not since William Howard Taft in 1912, has an incumbent made such a vigorous campaign for re-election as President Hoover is now concluding. Before midnight tonight, the president will have once more carried his arguments against election of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt into West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania through the medium of re-platform appearances.

In addition to Mrs. Hoover, those accompanying the president as members of his official party will include French Strother, his executive assistant; Secretaries Lawrence Richey and Walter H. Newton, and former Senator Henry Allen of Kansas publicity director for the Republican party.

In Central States.
Tomorrow morning will find him campaigning through the hotly-contested central states for the fifth time in a month. Carv, Ind., will be the setting for a 9 a. m. (CST)

Transportation In Berlin Tied Up By Strike

Sudden Wage Strike By Transportation Workers Ties
Up All Traffic

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Nov. 3.—A sudden wage strike called because of a cut of two pennings an hour (less than one-half cent) today resulted in severe street clashes and a general tie-up of the capital's transportation system.

Strikers and strikebreakers fought furious street battles, injuring several. Police were placed on alarm footing.

Street car motor bus and underground traffic were crippled. The employees flatly rejecting the cut.

land, from argument and oration and this will be a quiet place, a sort of speechless nation. For you eat you, and all your friends will settle things in order, and votes will fly like driven snow, from border clear to border. We will not hear the heated cries of orators and speakers, their voices may not be quite still, but they will be much weaker. And we can hear some orchestras and talks on raising onions, for politicians then will rest their voices and their unisons. Oh, hail the day when this will cease, and quiet large and fine, will tilt the land to sleep once more, the weather's forlorn nine.

WIMODAUUS MEMBERS LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Plans are completed for the monthly luncheon for members of the Wimodaus Club which will take place at the Cathedral, Wednesday afternoon, November 9. Mrs. Clyde Griffith and Mrs. Harry Remley will be associate hostesses on this occasion. Luncheon reservations are to be called in early.

The program to be given on this date will be in charge of Mrs. Harry Urmon. She has been fortunate in securing Prof. A. T. Cordray of New Wilmington to be the guest speaker, and he will present a playlet with the Westminster Dramatic students taking part.

A. O. T. CLUB HAS MASQUERADE EVENT

A gay event of Wednesday evening that was thoroughly enjoyed was the masquerade party held by the A. O. T. club members at the LeRoy Shoff residence on Garfield avenue.

After unmasking, it was found the costume prize awards were made to Harry Carlson and Robert Southern. Bridge was later in progress, occupying the attention of the guests, and trophies went to Earl Yoho, Mrs. Robert Allhouse and Mr. Allhouse.

A delectable buffet lunch was served, the appointments further expressing the Halloween season, bringing the evening to a close.

E. N. C. Club Party

The E. N. C. club members entertained at the home of Mrs. Clyde Turner Wednesday at East New Castle. The occasion was in the form of a ghost party which proved most amusing. Games and contests appropriate to the season filled in the hours in a pleasing manner and following a dainty lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Graff were special guests.

On Thursday, November 17 the regular meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Edward Dean, East New Castle.

A. G. P. Club Notes.

Fall flowers decorated the home of Mrs. Matthew Edell, Shaw street, for the meeting of the A. G. P. club members when they gathered for a social time Wednesday.

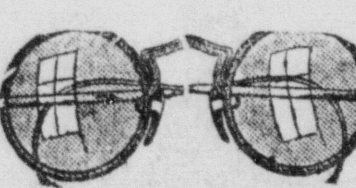

The hours were spent in playing 500. Mrs. Gill Ross being recipient of the prize. As special guests they had Mrs. Margaret and Mrs. Newt Byers, the former receiving the guest token.

In two weeks Mrs. John Earl of the Hoyt apartments will entertain at her home.

MARRIAGE NEWS OF INTEREST HERE

At a party given on Monday evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Ward, South Graham street, Pittsburgh, who entertained jointly with Miss Esther Franklin and Miss Esther Klee, announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Irene Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harper Montgomery of Walpole, New Castle, to Dr. D. W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Morgan of Franklin. Thirty guests participated.

The ceremony was solemnized on July 24, 1931, at Mahoney City with the Rev. Lutz officiating with the ring service. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Parmley of Mahoney City were the only attendants.

Mrs. Morgan is a graduate of the West Penn hospital in Pittsburgh, and for the past four years has been in charge of the operating room. Dr. Morgan graduated from Bucknell university and Albany Medical school and is now associated on the staff of the West Penn hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Morgan are residing at the Winchester apartments, Ivy street, Pittsburgh.

Attend Inspection

Mrs. Mary Kurtz, Mrs. Jessie Mayne, Mrs. Maude Fisher, Mrs. Jessie Crooks and Mrs. Pearl Cook of Ten 20 Daughters of Union Veterans and Mrs. Bertha Short, Mrs. Mary Moon, Mrs. Anna Gill, Mrs. Eva Neely and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell of Sharon Ten 23, went to Grove City Tuesday evening and visited the Ten 25 of the Daughters of Union Veterans when they entertained the department inspector, Miss Jennie Edwards of Sewickley.

The New Castle Tent will entertain Miss Edwards Tuesday, November 8, at a 6:30 dinner and the inspection of the tent will follow at 8 o'clock.

Friday evening a number of local persons will attend the masquerade party of Ten 23, Sharon, to which the organization received an invitation.

Mrs. Wallover, North Mill street will entertain the members and friends of Ten 20 in her home Wednesday, November 9.

N. H. B. Kensington.

An informal social time featured the N. H. B. Kensington members meeting on Wednesday when they met with Mrs. H. T. Cooper on Meyer avenue. A good number were in attendance and the hours were pleasantly passed away with needlework and chat.

During the business period, Mrs. John Murdoch and Mrs. Roy Martin were taken into the club as new associates.

After the serving of lunch by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Jarrett, they adjourned, agreeing to meet again in two weeks with Mrs. C. C. Dickson on Junior High street.

Sin-Mar Bridge Club.

The usual social session of the Sin-Mar Bridge club members was held Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Ada Miller on East Washington street. Cards formed the recreation. Miss Marian Teets receiving the prize, and Mrs. Ned Chapman, special guest of the club, was presented with a lovely hostess gift.

A delicious lunch was served before adjourning. Miss Mabel Campbell assisting with the menu.

Their next meeting will be an event of November 16 with Grace Sankey on Meyer avenue as hostess.

SHENANGO CHAPTER O. E. S. PARTY HELD

On Wednesday evening another of the card parties planned by members of Shenango Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was held when the Misses Rhoda Leslie and Jean Glenn entertained jointly at the formers home Wednesday evening, a number of the chapter associates.

Five tables of bride were in play at the close of the contests the prize for high score was awarded to Miss Harriett Beadel.

At a chosen hour the hostesses assisted by Mrs. James G. Leslie and Miss Isabel Leslie, served a tasty repast. The individual tables were re-arranged and appointed in keeping with the season.

OLD FASHIONED TEA AT FRANTZ HOME

Time was turned backward many years Wednesday afternoon when the members of the Hershey Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church entertained friends at an old fashioned musical tea in the home of Mrs. W. W. Frantz, 143 East Wallace avenue.

The program opened with Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, gowned in a quaint costume, singing "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "The Quelling Party."

Mrs. W. P. Felch, charming in a gown of years ago, sang "The Second Minute" and "In the Gloaming" and Mrs. W. A. Woodworth, stately in a most becoming gown of yesterday, sang "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" and "Long, Long Ago." The singers were accompanied by Miss Helen Ewing.

As the singers finished, Mrs. P. Urey sat down to the piano and as she played old fashioned airs, memories were aroused as down the stairs and through the rooms quaint looking maids stepped forth in the gowns of ancestors. Miss Margaret Brown, dressed in a gown belonging to the great grandmother of Mrs. George Carpenter, introduced the models: Alma Fankhouser, Late Wheeler, Josephine McGoun, Margaret Beadel and Helen Jameson.

Among the gowns modeled was one worn by Mrs. Norman Martin when she attended the ball in connection with the opening of Shenango Hospital, another had been worn by Mrs. W. A. Woodworth's grandmother, still another was the bridesmaid gown worn by Mrs. Howard Kirk at Mrs. Lou Crawford's wedding.

The dining room presented a beautiful appearance when the guests were ushered there for refreshments. Orange tapers lighted up the bowl of candles and the gleaming silver as tea was poured by Mrs. Robert K. Aiken, Mrs. Ira Ramsey, Mrs. W. E. McClure and Mrs. Harry Elder.

The aides were gowned in quaint dresses. Mrs. Dave Long being charming in an orchid satin party dress worn many years ago by Mrs. S. W. Perry and Mrs. Harry Elder formed a pretty picture as she wore her mother's wedding gown.

Mrs. H. E. Golder was general chairman for the event; the program was arranged by Mrs. A. B. Fankhouser and Mrs. H. W. McKee; Miss Grace Woodworth was in charge of menu and Mrs. David Long and Mrs. Robert Aiken arranged the tea table.

Carriers' Wives Meet.

Wives of New Castle's letter carriers were pleasantly entertained in the home of Mrs. W. E. Clarke on Maryland avenue Wednesday evening. A social club was organized and officers chosen.

Those named were Mrs. Frank Hav, president; Mrs. Albert Klingensmith, secretary, and Mrs. Roy Grafton, treasurer.

Games and contests were enjoyed and the lucky winners were Mrs. Albert Klingensmith, Mrs. Ben Cann and Mrs. Mont Forney.

At a late hour Mrs. Clarke, assisted by Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Claire and Mrs. Frank Hav, the associate hostesses, served a dainty lunch.

The club will meet next on December 1 with Mrs. Clarence Gillespie of Delaware avenue.

S. S. S. Club.

The S. S. S. club members met Wednesday evening with Rose Yanello on Hawthorne street, the hours being spent informally with 500, sewing and chat. Prizes at the close of the evening were awarded to Margaret DeLorenza and Alice Lambo for card honors.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Yanello, in serving lunch at 11 o'clock.

Adjournment followed and in two weeks Miss Lambo of Croton avenue will have the club.

Entertain Kinfolk

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kleckner, Butler avenue, entertained sixteen grandchildren Wednesday at a six o'clock turkey dinner.

The table was centered with a bowl of yellow and white mums and at each place was a novel favor.

Games and music filled the evening hours.

Birthday Event

Little Miss June Bliss Nelson, daughter of Sergeant and Mrs. D. T. Nelson, of 240 West Moody avenue, is today observing her seventh birthday, and in keeping with the occasion is hostess this afternoon to a few little girl friends. She was the recipient of a number of nice gifts.

In two weeks Mrs. James Flynn will receive the club.

Club Meeting Tuesday

The R-Nu Club members met Tuesday evening at the home of Josephine Iwanoski on Cedar street. Plans were discussed for a theatre party to take place on November 15, with Miss Glink as hostess.

After a program of musical solos, chat, etc., the guests were served refreshments by the hostess.

JUNIOR HADASSAH PLANS EVENTS

The regular meeting of the Junior Hadassah was held Wednesday evening, Nov. 2, at the home of Miss Sara Love, 1009 North Mercer street, with Miss Jeanette Rabinovitz acting as associate hostess.

Reports were given and in the absence of Miss Cella Lerner, chairman of the Halloween party held October 27, Miss Lillian Fishkin rendered her report and gave the names of those on her committee, who were Misses Ann Shifman, Mildred Levine, Lillian Fishkin, Sara Love, Geraldine Wolfe, Rose Safier and Bessie Kulkin.

Announcement was made of the joint junior-senior membership tea to be held November 14th at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Samuel Harin, national senior president, will be guest speaker on this date. The juniors will share in the program.

Plans were formulated for the annual mid-winter frolic, to be held on January 26, 1933, at the New Castle Field Club. Miss Bessie Kulkin was named chairman, with Miss Rhea Frank as co-chairman. Miss Mildred Levine, membership chairman, gave her report and stated that at the close of the campaign November 30th a novel and entertaining affair, in the form of a private party, will be given.

In the account given by Miss Esther Fishkin, Jewish national fund chairman, she announced that Macabean day would be held some time in December. Miss Ina Rosenberg gave the financial report.

Mrs. William Aptaker, senior advisor, was present and gave a few well chosen remarks.

The program was featured by Miss Naomi Kennedy, a young lady of this city, who is fast gaining recognition for her delightful and entertaining readings. She pleased her audience with several choice selections, some being humorous.

A social hour followed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Nate Love.

JEWISH WOMEN SEW AT JAMESON HOSPITAL

The same interest is being taken in one of New Castle's most valuable institutions, the Jameson Memorial hospital, due to the fact that the weekly sewing sessions conducted at the institution are well attended and if anything, the number of women who participate, are on the increase.

On Wednesday morning the Council of Jewish Women together with other interested ladies in this vicinity, met in the hospital rooms provided for this splendid work, and accomplished much from the hours of 9 until 12 o'clock.

It is announced the same group will be in charge of the meeting planned for Wednesday morning of the coming week, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who care to assist, to make a special effort to be present on this date and sew on articles needed to carry on.

Discussion Group

This evening at 7:30 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kirk, Highland avenue, the discussion group of the world peace discussion group.

The subject, "Are the educational, legislative and campaign policies of peace organizations sufficiently united and definite to push forward the government peace movement with certainty of shortening the period which must elapse before the nations will reach a peace goal?" Mrs. Keith McAfee and George Seyffert will discuss this and a summary of all talks will be given by H. S. Kirk and Mrs. William Kirk.

Reports from Mrs. A. H. Bowman, Bellevue, in charge of the Pennsylvania has more than her quota of discussion groups fully organized. New Castle will be represented at the congress of clubs in Pittsburgh at the western Pennsylvania meeting.

Sacred Hearts Auxiliary.

The Sacred Heart auxiliary held a masquerade party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Carvella on South Jefferson street. After a short business period, the guests indulged in a program of games and contests.

Special features were the songs rendered by Mrs. Carvella and Charlotte Angelo.

Costume prizes were presented to Mrs. Julia Barlett and Mrs. Andrew Angelo.

Plans were made for a theatre party to be held on November 7. After a dainty lunch had been served, the guests departed. The menu was in charge of Mary Vitale, Mrs. Kate Ross and Mary Angelo.

Mrs. Carl Wallace Hostess

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Carl Wallace, Wildwood avenue, entertained associates of her 1932 G. C. Club, recently organized, at cards. Tables of 500 were in play as the main diversion. Mrs. Frank Borio, Mrs. Willis McMullen and Mrs. James Flynn being prize winners.

Special visitors included Mrs. Olive Ferguson, Mrs. Frank W. Hill and Miss Lillian Dorsey, the latter receiving the guest token.

The hostess was assisted in serving a delicious lunch by her sister, Miss Isabel Thomas, Mrs. Hill and Miss Dorsey.

In two weeks Mrs. James Flynn of Edison avenue, will receive the club.

Friday

Jolly Twelve Club, Mrs. Charles Riney, Superior street.

O. N. 500 Club, Ethel Bell Cameron, Adams street.

Sorosis Club, Mrs. A. L. Thayer, Lincoln avenue.

Spoon Club, Mrs. E. W. Beadel, Rhodes Place.

E. L. T. A. Club, Mrs. Miffin Kincaid, Leasure avenue.

Harrison Street Girls Club, Jean and Betty Wright, hostesses.

1930 Hukom Club, Mary Gilkey, Croton avenue.

Wyleway Bridge Club, Mrs. George Miles, hostess.

Club Meeting Tuesday

The R-Nu Club members met Tuesday evening at the home of Josephine Iwanoski on Cedar street. Plans were discussed for a theatre party to take place on November 15, with Miss Glink as hostess.

After a program of musical solos, chat, etc., the guests were served refreshments by the hostess.

HOUSE GUEST HONORED AT EVENING BRIDGE

Miss Doris Updegraff entertained in a pleasing manner at her home on Moody avenue, a gathering of friends Wednesday evening at bridge as a courtesy to her house guest, Mrs. Paul Le Faivre of Baltimore, Md.

At conclusion of play, it was discovered the trophies for honors were captured by the Misses Dorothy Colgan and Peggy Cuppet. A lovely hostess prizes was presented the guest of honor.

Toward mid-night a dainty lunch was served, Miss Updegraff being assisted by Mrs. Harold Shaffer. The seasons tones prevailed throughout in the appointments.

Mrs. LeFaivre plans to remain in this vicinity for an indefinite period of time.

SMART AFTERNOON TEA ON WEDNESDAY

One of the smart social events of this week was the tea Wednesday afternoon in the Highland United Presbyterian church when the members of the Baird Missionary Society were hostesses to about two hundred women.

Small tables were placed about the assembly and junior rooms of the church and the addition of lamps, ferns and flowers transformed the place into a lovely reception room, with each hostess seating her guests at her own table and serving light refreshments.

An impromptu stage had been erected at the front of the room and shortly after 2:30 the curtains parted and the players from the Little Theater of Westminster College, under the direction of Prof. A. T. Cordray, presented a one-act play "Long Distance", from the pen of William Hazlett Upson. The humor of the situation was forcibly brought out through the splendid acting of Thomas Herriot, New Wilmington; Gilbert Dindinger, Pittsburgh; Alan Harper, Zellenople; Helen McLaughry, Mercer; Edwin Swartz, and Margaret Beachler, Mt. Lebanon, students at the College.

After a hearty reception of the college students' play the curtains again parted and members of Miss Clara Hartuff's dramatic class of the Senior High school gave two one act plays "Three Pills in a Bottle", a fantasy of souls, and "The Wisdom Teeth" a humorous sketch in a dentist's office. These were most capably presented by Marjory Dewberry, "Sandy" Howard, Frank Riegar, Martha Jane Longstreet, Harold Booth, Nettie Mann, Jayne Magee, Harry Levine, Freda Cohen and Vivian Jones.

When the plays were concluded the players were then seated at small tables and served refreshments.

The handling of arrangements for the afternoon event was in the hands of Mrs. Ray Rhodes and her efficient committee.

B. B. B. MEMBERS

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A special social event for members of the B. B. B. Club was held Wednesday evening when they met to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Richards at Cottage Grove for a six o'clock tureen dinner, having as special guests their husbands.

The event was in the form of a Halloween celebration and proved one of the most enjoyable gatherings on their fall calendar.

After partaking of a delectable menu served at nicely appointed tables, the guests turned their attention to a program of games which were in charge of Mrs. George Brodbeck and Mrs. Walter Gross, committee. Prizes were won by Maurice Boyd and Miss Margaret Elley.

The date of their next regular meeting falls on November 16, with Mrs. Gross on Bedford street as hostess.

O. E. A. Club Gathers

The home of Mrs. William Dukes, Park avenue, was opened to members of the O. E. A. club, Wednesday evening, when she entertained informally at 500. Three tables were in play, and Mrs. J. P. Walter and Mrs. W. H. Tanney were prize winners.

After the serving of a tempting lunch, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Mary Strimmar and Mrs. Earl Chaffee, they adjourned. Places were arranged for all club associates and one guest, Mrs. C. E. Armstrong.

The Chaffee home on Highland avenue extension will be the meeting place for the members in two weeks.

1907 Club Members

Three tables of 500 featured the meeting of the 1907 Club members on Wednesday when they gathered in the home of Mrs. Mary Geddis on Huron avenue. Mrs. Frank Steckle and Mrs. Fred Beard were successful in winning the card trophies.

Lunch was served, the hostess having as her aid Mrs. Oscar Murphy.

In two weeks Mrs. Beard of Ryan avenue will receive club.

Butler Girls Club

A delightful meeting of the Butler Girls Club was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Anderson on Pine street. The usual social period was conducted, and at the close of the entertainment the hostess served dainty refreshments. Mrs. W. T. Beighley assisted with the menu.

The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. E. C. Beahm on Moody avenue in two weeks.

Meeting Postponed

On account of election night the meeting of the board of directors and advisory board of the Neighborhood House, Americanization Society, has been postponed to Tuesday, November 15.

The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Charles Greer, North Jefferson street.

WE CANNOT AFFORD TO CHANGE

THERE is no more insidious propaganda in the world than that developed by defeatism. The defeatist spreads not only discouragement but discontent. His words, though not the flaming crimson of the torador's cape, are tinged with pink. Defeatism is the whip-lash used on the back of the man who is already down. It has no mercy. The man who preaches it has neither fairness nor sense. His arguments are based on false doctrine. His assertions are the smoke rings blown from cheap tobacco. They evaporate quickly, but leave in the nostrils a most unpleasant stench.

The watchword of this tawdry philosopher today is "We need a change." If the voting citizen whom he assails with this sophistry will but examine the record of the Hoover administration for the last three years, he will see the fallacy of this defeatist's argument.

We are travelling along a highway in a powerful automobile, gathering momentum as we go until we reach a highly accelerated rate of speed and suddenly the tire blows. The car swerves to the side of the road,—and it is only due to the ingenuity of the driver that we are not wrecked or killed. We climb out of the tonneau, frightened and cowed. Our nervous system is intensely aware of itself. We even become panicky. We stand shivering at the road side, blue and discouraged. Our trip is ruined, time is uncertain and the future looks black.

But we watch the driver. He is going about his job, steadily and methodically, righting the car, removing the flattened tire, replacing it with a solid one. He is surrounded with wrenches, screwdrivers, jacks, and many strange looking implements not understandable to our lay minds. But we realize that the man in charge of operations is gradually getting things back in shape so that we can continue on our way. Do we change this man? Do we insist that a passer-by take charge? Of course not. We allow the man we chose in the first place to carry on and finish the job.

This is an excellent example of the state our nation has been in for the last three years. We have struggled through the throes of depression and are now on the road to recovery. The man who is at the helm has brought us through this terrific economic struggle with a steady hand and a steadier eye. Not once has he wavered. Now that the trend has turned back to normalcy, slow as the process may seem, it certainly is not the time to change the man in control of the situation.

It is too late now for the insidious insinuations of the professional croakers and misery singers to break down our morale by the use of a fallacious slogan. We have confidence and faith in the man who is doing the job. We know now that we have at our command the perfect answer to the defeatist: "We cannot afford to change."

ROOSEVELT AND NORRIS

Stopping over in the home town of Senator Norris, Gov. Roosevelt put his arms around him, figuratively speaking, kissed him on both cheeks, and then turning to the assembled crowd he said: "Senator Norris is the very perfect gentleman of American progressive ideals."

And over in the court house of the town in which this touching scene took place reposed an affidavit signed by Senator Norris in which he made solemn oath that he "affiliates with the Republican Party and with that party only." And that oath was made January 8, 1930, only two years after he had supported Alfred Smith, Democratic candidate for President, and while he was at the very moment actively engaged in doing all he could to frustrate the program of a Republican President. "A very perfect, gentle knight!"

DANGEROUS DRIVING MONTHS

The fall and winter months are the most dangerous of the year for automobile driving.

Rain, snow, sleet, hail and ice; early darkness, haste to reach home and escape the cold, tightly closed cars and low visibility, all contribute to the hazards.

Skidding is a chief danger of cold weather driving. The motorist must confront not only a visible wet or icy surface, but one hidden under a bed of fallen leaves.

Last year 1,740 persons were killed and 51,720 injured in 44,510 accidents due to skidding cars.

The automobilist cannot carry the driving practices of the late spring and summer over to the fall and winter without running a great risk of accident. Conditions become vastly different in the last three months of the year, and the driver must take them into consideration. Certain rules for the dangerous driving months are laid down:—

Have your car thoroughly inspected for any mechanical defects that may have developed during the summer.

"Be especially sure your brakes are effective; be sure your tires are in first-class condition, also your lights and your windshield wiper.

"Cut down on your summer speed.

"Allow for early darkness and for decreased visibility.

"If you find your car going into a skid, do not jame on your brakes."

Available statistics indicate that automobile fatalities in the United States decreased about 12 per cent the first seven months of this year. If that record were to be maintained up to, and including December 21, it would mean that the number of human lives taken by motor cars during the year would fall below 30,000 for the first time since 1928. However, the supreme test is now being applied.

Under the most perfect conditions, the driver of an automobile should exercise extreme care. And when the bad days come, that care should be stretched to the utmost.

No matter how early a man comes home, his wife always thinks he should have got there sooner.

Only time some men think they have no kick coming is when it comes time to kick in with some cash.

Making love is about like learning to drive an auto. You never will learn just by watching someone else.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

If you are unhappy, whose fault is that?

You have been young and bewildered.

You have been poor and friendless.

You have been sick and in pain.

You have been hungry.

You have faced death.

And yet—

You have been happy. Through all the bewilderment and agony and turmoil, a thread of happiness has run strongly and surely—and you were not for one wavering moment unhappy.

In fever, in grief, in hunger you have kept happiness alive.

You felt young and strong and bold. You were not afraid. Though your body was sick, the heart of your being was well. Though you were alone you were not lonely.

Though life was a puzzle, you knew you would solve it.

You were not unhappy then. In the past. In those other years when you might well have thought that life was too strong for you.

Then why are you unhappy now?

What is this unhappiness, anyway? Is it a germ, that finds a weak place within you and grows and multiplies and feeds on you and grows mightier every day—and weakens you as its powers increase?

Tell me that.

Yes, I think it is a germ that makes you and me unhappy in moments when we should be strong and young as ever and joyously alive.

It is the germ of Self-Pity that has caught us unawares.

It is a streptococcus that defies all alkaloids, all temperatures, all stains, all filters. That creeps upon us in a moment of weakness and is fed by our own vanities. Suddenly we have pitied ourselves, seen ourselves as tiny and pathetic and pitiable. We have seen other men and women as more fortunate than us, called ourselves the victims of remorseless fate, invited Misery in and made Melancholy our household guest.

If we are unhappy, not Fate, not Life, not some Other Fellow made us what we are. We, with our own Self-Pity, did it!

MASTER YOUR MOODS

Isn't it true that you make comparatively little effort to control your moods?

If you feel depressed, if you feel like fault-finding in fact if you are inclined in any disagreeable way, you let that mood hold sway.

When you reach your place of business or place of employment in a cross and irritable condition, don't you at once begin to display that spirit with those with whom you come in contact?

If an employer or a boss, don't you censure very unjustly those who displease you in the slightest way, on such days?

You pick flaws in whatever comes your way no matter how humanly perfect the work may be.

What should please you brings no word of commendation from you.

You feel "out of sorts" and you vent your feelings upon those least able to retaliate.

If you were just and had complete mastery of yourself you would not permit your ill-temper to color your conduct toward those in no way responsible.

It is hard enough for a person to withstand the criticism that his own infractions or mistakes may cause, so don't make life harder for those around you.

GRANDPAP'S JOB

Making up tales for the children to hear.

Just the right job for an old fellow.

Just the right job for an old-fashioned chap.

Who doesn't care much for an afternoon nap.

But would much rather sit in the four-seated swing.

And tell them strange tales for the fun of the things.

Making up tales for the children to hear.

Keeping them quiet when company's near.

Just the right job for a grandpap like me.

Telling them stories of sailors at sea.

Pirates and Indians, wildcats and bears.

While father and mother are resting upstairs.

Just an old grandpap, as worn as a shoe.

Little in life there is left I can do.

This task's too heavy and that one's too long.

My fingers are fumbling, my legs are not strong.

Still there's a need for us old fellows queer.

Making up tales for the children to hear.

Maybe they'll miss them when I disappear.

Maybe they'll wish for me. Maybe they will.

Find there's a place only grandpaps can fill.

Maybe they'll learn, as I learned long ago.

There are some things only granddaddies know.

WHY THEY WEAR 'EM

Why do the gals, sometimes known as the fair, or weaker sex, wear nose length veils on their new fall bonnets? Everybody knows that women today are more practical than their grandmothers and there must be a reason for the nets. Because if there weren't, these businesslike ladies wouldn't have 'em. Forthwith we dug around to find a reason, and found several:

The veils are to keep moths out of the hair and ears.

They are to keep away the little birds that tell wives things about their husbands.

They are to strain dust out of the air.

They are to provide a home for unemployed spiders.

They are to keep flies out of the nose.

A problem that concerns every motorist is the growing number of suits arising out of injuries to guests being transported free of charge by owners and operators of motor vehicles. The "guest" suit racket has assumed all the earmarks of a national evil, according to the American Automobile Association.

Seventeen states have enacted laws which in effect, provide that a person transported free in a private automobile has no cause for action, in case of injury, unless the accident was caused by willful negligence on the part of the operator. Universal enactment of this legislation should be encouraged, the association says.

Harry Carr writes that once when he was young and foolish he wrote a magazine story which seems now to illustrate many things. Mr. Van Puyster was visited at a mystic hour by his fairy godmother. She offered to make him magic coaches out of pumpkins; but he resented this as a slam on his new Italian car.

Finally he asked to see her fairy wand. "Where did you get it?" he asked. The King of the Fairies made it for me," she faltered. "Well, it isn't real gold," he said. "Take this note down to Tiffany's and have them make you one that is fit to be seen. And another thing, if everybody in Fairyland knows that you are my fairy godmother, I simply cannot afford to have you traipsing around in a skirt that doesn't hang. Go to Mme. Lucile's and tell her I said to outfit you in some clothing that do not look like last year's bird's nest."

Commander To Be Guest

National Head Of American Legion Coming November 28

POSTS OF DISTRICT
TO SHARE PROGRAM

LOUIS A. JOHNSON

New Castle has had the privilege of meeting a number of the National Commanders of the American Legion, due to the district banquets which have been held here, but it is doubtful if any of the ones who have been here have been more colorful than the present National Commander Louis A. Johnson, who is the honor guests here on November 28.

Commander Johnson is somewhat younger than most of the previous commanders have been. He was born in Roanoke, Va., January 10, 1891, and a product of the Virginia schools. Following his graduation as a lawyer in 1912 he located in Clarksburg, W. Va.

In the Legislature
When America entered the war he was a member of the West Virginia Legislature and resigned to go to war. Governor Cornwell would not accept his resignation until after a special war session had been called and following the special session Mr. Johnson entered the Second Officers Training Camp, later being assigned to the infantry in Camp Lee as a captain.

He went overseas with the eighth division and saw service in France with the 80th, 4th, 5th and 90th divisions. He is now a Lieutenant Colonel in the Reserves.

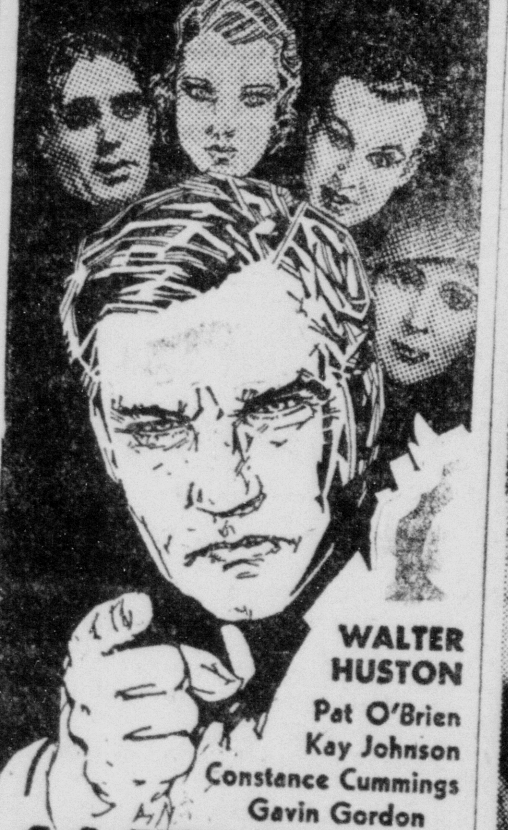

Commander Johnson was one of the original members of the American Legion and has been active in the work of the national organization since 1919. His trip to New Castle on November 28 is one of three such visits he will make in Pennsylvania, the other two being in Harrisburg and Philadelphia. Legion posts all over the 26th district are preparing to attend the banquet here on November 28 and it will probably be one of the largest ex-service gatherings seen here in some time.

An honest thinker is one who realizes that his speeding is just as "lawless" as the other man's boot-legging.

Audit Books Of Former Head At Titusville High

Seek To Check Reports Of Shortage In Tuition Fund
Of $4,737

(International News Service)
TITUSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 3.—An audit of non-resident tuition funds of the Titusville school board today was being conducted under the direction of the board, seeking to check reports of a $4,737 shortage in the books of Paul J. Murphy, resigned high school principal.

Murphy resigned several weeks ago "because of rumors being circulated about me." He is in Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, undergoing psychopathic observation.

Action by the board came after Louis Rickle, treasurer of the Titusville school district, charged at least one check drawn for expenses was endorsed with his forged signature.

New Wilmington Young Republicans Have Fine Meeting

New Wilmington is going Young Republican in a big way. Last night at the New Wilmington high school building about 75 young men and women interested in the re-election of President Hoover, attended a meeting and heard the Republican administration praised sung by prominent New Castle Young Republicans.

The meeting was called to order by W. Filmore Campbell, Burgess of New Wilmington, a member of the Young Republicans, and later presided over by General Chairman Joseph McPate. The speakers were James A. Rugh, Attorney Gilbert Long and Attorney Jack Lamore. It was a most enthusiastic gathering. New Wilmington plans to be well represented on the county committee that meets tonight at the city hall in New Castle. Hoover is assured of a fine vote in New Wilmington.

For two years the Democrats have been yelling that the tariff house is on fire but have never made a move to bring up a bucket of water, though the buckets and the well are at hand.

Attacking the Roosevelt plan for employing millions of idle persons on public works, the SAN JOSE MERCURY HERALD (Rep.) says: "In the first place, the public credit could not stand the strain of borrowing the billions required for so gigantic a project. The effect on the financial structure would be disastrous. In the second place, it is impractical to devise a public works program that would give immediate employment to ten million workers. Furthermore, the dislocation of the credit system would decrease normal employment and throw more workers out of a job."

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Poppy Day On November 12

Plans Being Made For Annual Legion Poppy
Day

For the 12th consecutive year the Perry S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion, will observe Poppy Day this year on Saturday, Nov. 12. James C. Brice, commander of the post, announced today that Attorney Clarence A. Patterson had been appointed general chairman of the Poppy Day committee and was already at work arranging the details of it.

Poppy Day has been responsible for a large amount of relief work in the Legion in the past years. The poppies are made by disabled veterans in hospitals and by the sale of them these veterans are aided. The net proceeds of the sale of poppies here are used for the relief of needy veterans.

The details of the Poppy Day plan for this year will be announced by Chairman Patterson shortly.

Safe Pleasant Way To Lose Fat

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose your double chin and get prominent hips and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 4 weeks and costs but a trifle. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

Now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 salts of Kruschen have presented you with glorious health. To take off fat harmlessly and SAFELY, take Kruschen every morning—don't worry—it's the SAFE way to reduce. But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at Eckerd's Cut Rate, New Castle Drug Co., or any drugstore in the world and if the results one bottle brings do not delight you—do not joyfully satisfy you—why money back.

Needlework Guild Work Is Maturing

Gathering Of New Articles
And Money Contributions
Will Be Held November 10

The Castleton Hotel will be the display center for the articles gathered by the Needlework Guild at its annual ingathering on Thursday, Nov. 10.

Mrs. W. E. Ferver and her 20 section presidents are getting their members and contributions gathered for this day and she has announced that any contribution, either of money or new articles of apparel, from anyone interested in the work, whether a member of any of the groups or not, will be most gratefully received as the need for this splendid organization's work is greater this year than ever before.

Last year's ingathering was 4,356 garments and these were distributed among the various charitable organizations and institutions of the city. The public is invited to inspect the collected garments at The Castleton on November 10.

Cooties Seek Other Quarters

Police Department Makes It
Too Hot For Them In City Jail

The cooties are on the march as far as the city jail is concerned and have been for some time past, since an efficient way of fighting them and getting rid of them was devised. Originally a well known bug killer was sprayed at regular intervals all about the city jail to rid the place of the "cooties" brought in by the weary travelers, who get a night's lodging there. But a far more efficient method has now been secured. Fire is the medium by which the place is purified and the cooties put on the march. A long pipe attached to the gas outlet of the place and with a special end on it, that throws out a broad flame when the gas is turned on and ignited, is used. This battle of the "cooties" is an event of every two weeks at the city jail with the result that it is comparatively free from vermin, in spite of its continued use by the type of men who infest such a place with the cooties.

What is reported to be the first experiment of its kind is now being tried out in Elkhart, Ind., where the street car employees receive, instead of wages, all gross revenue received on their cars above 10 cents a mile.

Additional sentences are being passed this afternoon.

Officer McMullen Attending School

Is Learning Fingerprinting At State Police School Of Instruction

Officer Willis G. McMullen started this week to attend the school of instruction conducted at the state police barracks in Butler, where he is taking a course in fingerprinting. When he completes the course, which will continue for several weeks, he will have been thoroughly trained in the reading of fingerprints. It is expected that his knowledge will be of very material benefit to the police department of this city. The schedule of the school is such that he is spending but a part of each day at Butler, being on active duty here the balance of the time.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Societies Plan For Open Meeting

Missionary societies of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church will have an open meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the church. Guests will be ladies of the congregation, all of whom are cordially invited. There is a fine program in store for them, including a play which promises to be interesting.

RECENT BRIDE IS HONORED BY PARTY

In honor of Mrs. Cyril Jones, a bride of recent date, a group of school friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Guy, West Madison avenue, Tuesday evening, for a miscellaneous shower.

Bridge, 500 and other games were popular pastimes of the evening hour. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Guy, assisted by Mrs. L. C. Godwin. Color tones of green and rose were used attractively in the decorations.

Many pretty gifts were received by the honor guest, Mrs. Jones will be remembered as Virginia Guy.

LIBRARY DAY

The Mahoningtown library was opened at noon today and will remain so until 9 p. m. It will not be open again until next Monday. On Thursday, November 24, the library will be closed in observance of the nation-wide holiday, Thanksgiving.

CLOTHING DONATIONS

Donations of all used clothing in good condition should reach the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church by Saturday this week. The clothing will be distributed among needy New Castle people.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. Carl Foster of Lakewood, O., was a seventh ward caller Thursday for a few hours.

William Stubbs, of West Madison avenue, spent yesterday and today hunting small game in the Enon Valley vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield and children, of Pittsburgh, are spending a few days with relatives in this part of the city.

Jack Scott, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was taken suddenly ill while working, Tuesday, and is confined to bed at his home in Pittsburgh.

William Stubbs and sister, Mrs. Alice Brumbaugh and Lester Brumbaugh, of West Madison avenue, have returned home after attending the funeral of Mrs. Brumbaugh's father-in-law, at an eastern point of the state.

Trinity Canvassers Meet On Wednesday

Complete Plans For Every Member Canvass On Sunday Afternoon

Approximately 30 men of Trinity Episcopal parish met last evening in the guild room of the church for the purpose of completing plans for the annual every member canvass of the parish to be made on Sunday afternoon.

L. W. Strayer, chairman of the canvass, presided at the fine dinner served at 6:30 o'clock by the Earnest

Observations In 7th Ward

Hardly any of the hunters came back from field and wood on the first day of the small game season without the limit in rabbits. Among the successful hunters were J. A. Boak, Blaine Bumbaugh, Ted Jones, George Meyer.

The rural carrier for the Mahoningtown postoffice is using what is known as the "goose path" in place of the Moravia road which is at the present time closed while the approaches to the new bridge are being paved. A number of other people who travel frequently between here and Wampum, use the same road as does the rural carrier. But the general public is advised not to use this route, since it isn't paved, and there being some difficulty in getting on to the paved Moravia road at the small cement bridge. It is necessary at that point to cut through Elsiner's property.

Trucks from the Wampum and Moravia coal mines are using an entirely different route. It is unpaved, yet saves quite a number of miles that would be necessary for them to travel if using the detour recommended by the state highway department (namely, the Ellwood City route). The trucks, coming from Wampum and Moravia, turn left at Moravia and take an almost direct road to Mt. Jackson. The road intersects the Mt. Jackson highway directly in the center of the town.

J. A. Prater has a new depression plant recipe. Take a pine tree cone, (a dry one), drop grass seed in the scales, put cone in glass, with bottom resting in the water. Watch the grass sprout from the scales. Makes an interesting plant when developed.

A West Clayton street resident says that hunters are shooting their guns entirely too near the homes in that district.

November winds are whistling, but still a large percentage of the young students of Mahoning school are wearing ankle socks, the writer notices.

MCCOY CLASS MEETING

Mrs. M. C. Adams will be hostess to members of the McCoy Bible class of the Mahoning M. E. church at her home on West Madison avenue tonight.

TUREN DINNER

A tureen dinner will be enjoyed at the regular meeting of the Mabel Wilson auxiliary to the B. of R. T. Thursday evening, November 10 at Malta hall, one week from today. Mrs. William Ellgass is chairman of arrangements.

Workers and also at the conference held following the dinner.

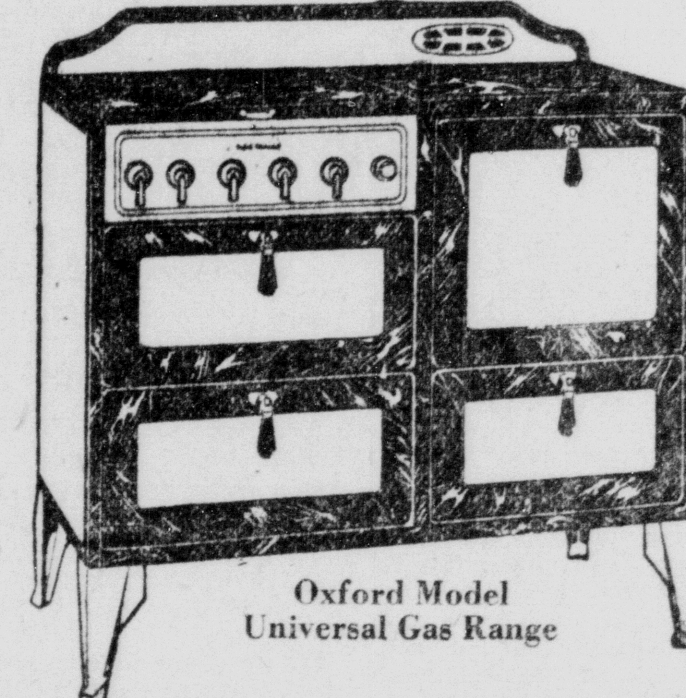

Special music featured the dinner with Dudley Arnold leading the singing and with Gerald McElhaney at the piano. L. W. Strayer opened the conference with remarks concerning the purpose of the gathering, after which Rev. P. C. Pearson spoke on matters of interest. R. M. Garland then spoke on the church budget, H. P. Meelan on "Why a Canvass" and L. F. Royston on "Why a Canvass Appeals to Me."

Bids For Shoes Are All Rejected

County Commissioners Will Re-
Advertise For 1200 Pairs
For Relief Work

County commissioners, after checking over the bids for 1200 pairs of shoes, have decided that the bids do not comply specifically with the specifications, and to-day rejected all bids. It is the intention to re-advertise at once. The bids submitted were all very close, but it is claimed that there were differences in the shoe samples which were submitted. An expert was called in to explain the mysteries of shoe making.

Bidders were required to submit samples which had been cut in different ways to show the workmanship and kind of material used. The shoes were cut across the center of the soles, around the heels and on the sides. The cuts across the soles permitted an inspection of the outer and inner soles, and the material. Differences were noted in the thickness of the different layers of the soles, and in the manner in which they were put together. In some shoes thin pieces were found to be glued together to make the soles, while in others the soles were all one piece. The samples submitted are supposed to be taken from regular stock.

Several New Cases Of Contagion Here

Several new cases of contagion have been reported during the past few days to the city health department. The proper quarantine relations have been made effective.

The patients follow:
Dorothy Kolesar, 118 Miller avenue; whooping cough.
Anna Kolesar, 118 Miller avenue; whooping cough.
Sammie DeProssio, seven, 309 West Wabash avenue; chickenpox.
Jennie Woods, three, 315 East Lutten street; diphtheria.

The solution is simple. When men parole or acquit a criminal, make them financially responsible for the next damage he does.

Says Hoover Revealed As Fighting Quaker

(International News Service)
DAYTON, O., Nov. 3.—President Hoover in the late hours of the campaign has been revealed "as a real fighting Quaker, thoroughly aroused, smashing down his opponent's positions one by one with irresistible logic," Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson today had told a big Republican rally here.

"For three years," declared the cabinet officer, "his opponents have been telling you he was a cautious, slow and timid man, that he was not a leader and least of all a fighter. 'We who have been close to him know better."

"The disguise has been torn off, and out has burst a fighting Quaker, thoroughly aroused, smashing down his opponents' positions one by one with irresistible logic, chasing his agile opponent around the ring, driving him out of one untenable position after another until it seems that if the debate lasted long enough he would have no positions left."

In his campaign speeches "he has spoken of things which he knew from top to bottom better than any other man in the United States and in the narration of which he has shown his astounding and comprehensive grasp of the facts of government," Stimson added.

In Religious and Fraternal Circles

Preparatory Service
Services preparatory to the holy communion are being held this week in the Reformed Presbyterian church, and at Wednesday night's service Rev. Paul McCracken of Rose Point was the visiting minister.

Friday evening at 7:30 Dr. W. T. K. Thompson of Mercer will deliver the sermon.

Dinner For Aid
The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church met in the dining room of the church Wednesday at one o'clock and enjoyed the fellowship of a splendid tureen luncheon.

Twenty-four places were arranged at the long table and at conclusion of the luncheon a business meeting was called.

Grand Circle
The Church of Spiritual Service, City building, Mrs. George Frey conductor, is planning a grand circle for Sunday afternoon and evening.

An interesting program has been arranged and Mrs. C. G. Parr will present the study book.

Mission Study Class
Miss Thelma Merrilees, Albert street, entertained the members of the Y. P. C. U. of Highland United Presbyterian church in her home Tuesday evening.

The study of "The Rainbow Empire" by Dr. Stewart Bergsma was taken up and is being taught by Rev. D. L. Ferguson, pastor of the church.

The Y. P. C. U. of the various United Presbyterian churches of the city are having the author of this study book as speaker in Highland church Monday, November 14.

At the close of the study period a social time was enjoyed and refreshments served.

F. P. A. Meeting
The F. P. A. Club members met on Tuesday evening in Clendenin Hall at 7:30 o'clock. Following cards were played and other diversions enjoyed. At a suitable hour lunch was served in the dining room to seven-five guests. Hallway decorations were used effectively in the appointments. The committee in charge included Frank Wimer, Robert Barkley and Sam Kemp of the men's lodge, and the ladies assisting were Mrs. E. B. Ray, Mrs. Robert Barkley, Mrs. Samuel Kemp, Mrs. Pearl Frey, Mrs. W. H. VanHorne, Mrs. Joe Campbell and Mrs. Clyde Bishop.

Plans were formulated for a similar party to be held in three weeks at the Junior's hall.

Section To Meet
Section B of the Y. L. B. Class of Third United Presbyterian church will meet Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Floyd Moore, Beckford street.

Mother's Circle
Members of the Mother's Circle of the First Presbyterian church will meet Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred Meyers, North Mercer street.

This is a change in the time of meeting as scheduled.

Give Soup To Needy
The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Epworth Methodist church met for an all day meeting in the church Wednesday and spent the morning hours at quilting and in soup making.

At noon the women gave ten quarts of soup to the needy of the vicinity. They will continue making soup throughout the winter months.

Mission Meeting
The Women's Missionary Society of the Third United Presbyterian church had its monthly meeting Wednesday in the form of a tureen luncheon in the church with Mrs. Claude Pattison and her group in charge.

At 2:30 the business meeting of the society was called and Mrs. J. E. Gorman had the mission study book "The Rainbow Empire" and talks on this were given by Mrs. Carrie McClane, Miss Black and Mrs. W. McKnight.

Mrs. W. D. Fullerton had charge of the prayer cycle and Mrs. Clarence Boston pleased with a solo number, accompanied by Katherine Newberry. Mrs. J. N. Bruce was in charge of the thanksgiving service and was assisted by Mrs. J. Kocher, Mrs. Gibson and Miss McHard.

Mrs. Della Reed presided at the business session.

BOY SCOUTS

LEADERS TO GATHER
Members of Lawrence county's Scout Leaders' club, organization of adult leaders, will meet in the home of Dr. R. C. Lutz, Highland avenue, on Thursday evening, November 10. Dr. Lutz, vice president of the group, issued the call in the place of President Gordon Cartwright, now away.

How To Avoid Stomach Gas

First thing—throw away your magnesia, soda, and all the other stuff like that.

Then eat what you like and don't worry whether you can digest it or not. For if you will simply take a tablespoonful of mentha pepsin (artificial stomach juice) before your meals, your once weak stomach can handle anything without a bit of trouble.

No more gas, fullness, pain, bloating—all are gone, says Eckerd's Cut Rate, or you can have your money back.

City Favors Construction Of Wall Along North Bank Of Neshannock Creek

Councilman Louis Genkinger today stated there are prospects of the city having a stone wall constructed along the Neshannock avenue side of the Neshannock creek, north of the North street bridge providing city for the purpose of dedicating it as a public alley. A wall several hundred feet long would be built if the city could obtain the land.

The city needs a stretch of land, but not very wide, in the rear of the McKee, Wynner, Emery, Leight and Gibson properties, it is reported. The distance of this land is about 170 feet.

If the city could obtain a narrow strip it would lead into a 12 foot alley which is dedicated as a public alley in the rear of properties between those owned by Levine and Turner.

One-Time National Chief Hails President's 'Sense Of High Values'

A man internationally famous for the leadership role he played at the helm of the Young Men's Christian Association for years, Dr. John R. Mott, its former national general secretary, today had publicly announced his personal choice of President Hoover for re-election.

To the Y. M. C. A.'s the country over Mott's page-and-a-half, typewritten message carried this keynote thought:

"It is a great thing to have as president in the years just ahead a man with such a keen sense of spiritual values. This is seen in the way that he, without any cant, places emphasis on the basic importance of religion. His deliverances at gatherings of Protestants, of Roman Catholics, and of Jews, as well as on other occasions, have been most discerning and helpful. He ever holds in the place of central prominence the claims of the character-building processes. In every way in his power he has sought to strengthen righteous and unselfish causes. I sometimes think that the great secret of his power and helpfulness, as well as the ground for his unshakable confidence in his continued leadership, lies in his Quaker conscience—which means an educated conscience, a sensitive conscience, an efficient conscience, and all this the result of a life-long habit of heeding the inner voice."

Elects Officers

A "get-acquainted" party of the Friendship Circle, International Institute, was enjoyed in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday evening, preceded by a business meeting. Katie Misemarra, president, was in charge.

Election of officers took place and the result was as follows: President, Genevieve Thomas; vice president, Mary Frank; secretary, Josephine Daino; and treasurer, Minnie Plink.

Plans and arrangements were made for the dinner to be held November 9 with board, committee and clubs of the Y. W. C. A. in the Green room and gym.

New Members were introduced and initiated. Games were enjoyed. Genevieve Thomas rendered a few vocal solos.

Christian Revival Drawing To A Close

Dr. G. S. Bennett Will Bring Two Week's Evangelistic Service To Close Sunday

The evangelistic services which have attracted city-wide attention to the First Christian church the past two weeks, will come to a close with the Sunday services.

Dr. G. S. Bennett has spoken most feelingly and thoroughly on the services and his teachings lodged in many hearts for there have been thirty-three accessions to the ranks of the Christians during the period.

Wednesday evening he spoke on "The Conversion of Paul" and this evening his topic will be "Some Blankets" and the Adult Women's Bible Classes will have a special section in the church reserved for them. A delegation from the Central Christian church will also attend this evening.

Special music by Sam Lewis and his chorus choir features each service.

Smith Has Novel Plan To Keep His Lime Plant Going

Takes Produce From Farmers
In Exchange For Lime And Passes Produce To Workers

Sterrett Smith of Mercer, who was the guest of his brother, T. E. Smith of East Washington street yesterday, told of a plan by which he has been able to keep his lime plant at Branchton, near Slippery Rock in operation.

Mr. Smith manufactures agricultural lime at the plant. This is lime that is used by the farmers to keep up the fertility of their land. Last spring Mr. Smith found that there were scores of farmers who needed the lime, but were unable to pay cash for it.

As Mr. Smith needed cash to pay his employees the outlook seemed gloomy until he hit upon a happy thought. The farmers need lime, he reasoned. They are short on cash but long on produce. The workmen in the plant are short both of cash and produce. Why not get them to accept produce for part of their wages, and thus help both the farmers and themselves.

The matter was broached to the men. They readily accepted. The result is that the farmers are getting their lime and the men provisions. Anything raised on the farm is accepted at the lime plant and is distributed to the men. The other day a farmer drove a live steer to the plant. It was butchered on the spot and the meat divided up among the men. Potatoes, apples, turkeys, corn, wheat, butter, eggs, milk, anything the farmer has can be traded for lime.

The plan has enabled Mr. Smith to keep his plant running at partial capacity, when it otherwise would have been idle.

October Weather Is Near Normal

Slight Excess In Temperature
And Rainfall Is Noted
During Month

While other sections of Pennsylvania, particularly the central part of the state, were reporting a tremendous excess in precipitation, the figures for Lawrence county remained almost normal.

There was a daily excess of 1.4 degrees in temperature, and an excess of seven-hundredths inches of rainfall during the month. In October, 1931, there was an excess of .99 inches in the precipitation and .29 degrees in the mean average temperature.

The figures for last month compiled by U. S. Weather Observer B. F. Johnson are as follows:
Mean maximum temperature, 63.8 degrees; mean minimum temperature, 43.6 degrees; mean average, 53.7. Normal for October, 52.3 degrees. The highest temperature was 79 on October 4 and the lowest was 29 on the 31st. The greatest daily range was 41 degrees on the 16th.

The total precipitation during the month was 2.79 inches, while the normal precipitation for October is 2.72 inches. The greatest amount during 24 hours was .69 inches on October 27. Days with .01 inch or more precipitation were 20, days clear, 2; days partly cloudy, 7; days cloudy, 15.

Mahoning's Steel At Stake, Says Bricker

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 3.—Challenging the people of Ohio to decide whether they would "give up" that which they had gained in a "battle against the depression led by Herbert Hoover," John W. Bricker of Columbus, Republican candidate for attorney general, declared here last night that statistics showed that an upturn in industry and business had arrived.

He declared the fate of the Mahoning Valley steel industry dependent on retention of Hoover and the Republican protective tariff policy.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

RUTH NICHOLS' PLANE WRECKED ON TAKE-OFF

Plane Rolls Over On Side

Miss Nichols Climbs Out Of Wreckage Apparently Uninjured

PLANNED TO FLY ACROSS CONTINENT

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Ruth Nichols' monoplane, "The Dawn of Victory," was wrecked today while she attempted to hop-off on a non-stop flight to the Pacific coast.

Miss Nichols was injured when she climbed from the wreckage of the plane, which was turned over on its side.

The airplane rolled over a ground loop and rolled over its side. Its left wing, the running gear and part of the fuselage crumpled up.

Miss Nichols' quick action in turning off the ignition probably saved the craft from going up in flames, as gasoline began pouring in large streams from the fuel tank.

Miss Nichols planned to fly to Burbank, Calif., on a tour in support of President Hoover's re-election.

Rabbit Injures Hunting Dog, Is Story By Hunter

Charleroi Hunter Says Rabbit Jumped On Dogs Back, Then Kicked Him

(International News Service) CHARLEROI, Pa., Nov. 3.—The old rabbit punches out. Simon Lilly of Coalventer returned from a hunting trip Wednesday with a badly injured dog.

He said the animal, still somewhat a pup, had scared up a rabbit in a thicket. In making its getaway, the bunny jumped on the dog, tussled with him and finally kicked it over an embankment.

New Wilmington

LADIES AID SOCIETY
A very interesting meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church was held in Sharon on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Hayes, late residents of this place. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Roy Cummings.

IS IMPROVING
If the condition of Fred Williamson keeps improving as it has, he will return from the Jameson Memorial hospital to his home here the last of this week or the earlier part of the next. He has been confined to the hospital for three weeks with serious injuries resulting from bullet wounds fired by a bandit attempting to rob his store.

FIREMEN MEET
The regular meeting of the New Wilmington Volunteer Firemen was held last night at their club house on Vine street. Regular business was transacted with a goodly number represented.

HUNTING
The hunters and gamblers around New Wilmington were in their glory on Tuesday when the first day of hunting season rolled around. Nearly all that went out returned with their limit of rabbit and squirrel with some even lucky enough to bag a pheasant or two.

BASKETBALL
Around fifteen men have reported to Coach Walter Hutchison, former Ithaca basketball and track star, who produced a championship basketball club his first year in this home town, for drill. Some of the boys are green but eight lettermen are available with one new-comer from Erie shaping up well. Ralph Gilliland, former three letter man of the local high is assisting Hutchison in getting his proteges into shape.

Canadian Youth Is Found Alive In Willoughby, O.

Police Take Runaway Canadian Boy Into Custody, Wanted To See World

(International News Service) CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—With his plans "to see the world" blasted by the intervention of Willoughby, O., police, Ross N. McDiarmid, 14, who ran away from his home in Winnipeg last Oct. 22, today awaited the arrival of his father, John S. McDiarmid, minister of mines and natural resources in Manitoba.

The elder McDiarmid, who was informed of his son's apprehension while police of two nations waged a widespread hunt for the youth, was expected from New York this morning.

Frankly admitting that "I can't say I'm glad I've been found," the boy said, however, that he was ready to return home.

Two Willoughby policemen, Patrolmen Robert Shepard and Elmer Schultz, probably will share in the $100 reward posted by McDiarmid for the return of the youth.

There is no secret of failure. You just learn to blame other people for what happens to you.

Tremendous Increase In Hoover Sentiment

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A prediction that the Republicans will carry New York State in Tuesday's election was made to President Hoover Wednesday by George Z. Medallie, federal district attorney and Republican candidate for U. S. Senate.

Following a White House luncheon conference, Medallie declared he had told the president that Hoover sentiment is growing stronger both in New York City and upstate, "by the hour."

"I am confident that with President Hoover and Colonel Donovan I shall win in the New York state election," Medallie added.

"I have observed a tremendous increase of sentiment, both in New York City and upstate, for Mr. Hoover."

Trucks Tied Up At Border Lines Of States Today

Four-Cornered Truck War Continues, Trucks Halted At Boundary Lines

(International News Service) TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—A four-cornered war between states over truck license fees tied up many hundreds of Pennsylvania motor trucks today at various points along the boarder of this state.

Loads of food and other perishable cargoes were halted at state line crossings by the New Jersey authorities who acted in retaliation against a decree of Pennsylvania officials compelling all motor trucks from other states passing through or engaged on regular schedule runs to submit to registration.

Maryland and Delaware were the other two states in the controversy. Like New Jersey, they objected to the demand, and as a result police barred the entrance of Pennsylvania licensed trucks into the territories of the two states unless they were outfitted with Maryland tags.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Hoffman asserted "New Jersey will take reciprocity for all trucks or none."

Relief Now In Few Minutes From Pains Of Rheumatism

It has now been discovered by thousands of rheumatic sufferers that the pains of that distressing disorder can be eased in as little as a few minutes... relief and comfort in almost as little time as it takes to tell!

Doctors advise two tablets of Bayer Aspirin taken with a full glass of water. Then a rest of a few minutes... and that is all. Pain is eased quickly—sometimes almost unbelievably.

Relief comes so fast because of the peculiar quick-dissolving property of Genuine Bayer Aspirin. The tablets you take dissolve almost INSTANTLY in your stomach. And thus you get practically instant relief. The fastest, safe relief—it is said.

Remember it is Genuine Bayer Aspirin which claims this quick-

Pennsylvania 'Keystone' Of 48 States, As Of 13, Kiwanis Hears In Speech

That Pennsylvania, rich with natural resources, has become a titan in the realm of industry, a leader in the field of agriculture and a rival for the nation's prize beauty crown, to maintain forever her place as the keystone of the union's 48 states, as she held it in the original 13, was the convincing point sounded by a Greenville business man, student of Pennsylvania history, before the Kiwanis club yesterday.

If ever Pennsylvania sat up, if ever they felt lifted by a wave of pride, it was the Kiwanis who listened attentively to the scholarly recount of the growth of Penn's Woods which Harold Gillispie delivered. And any Pennsylvanian would have felt proud.

By skillful maneuvering of figures and data that otherwise would seem cold and dry, the Kiwanis speaker conveyed a rapid and yet complete picture of how Pennsylvania came to rank second among the industrial states of the country, how she came to ascend the pedestal that makes her the producer of one-eighth of all the goods fabricated in the U. S. A. The picture painted agriculture's forward stride as magnificent as that of industry's.

"War-time," declared Mr. Gillispie, "has brought Pennsylvania to her heights by the very fact that not a conflict has come but what found Pennsylvania contributing the master financial genius of it."

"It was Robert Morris in the Revolutionary days; Steven Girard, during the War of 1812; Jay Cook in the crucial Civil War period, and Andrew Mellon in the late World War."

The speaker assured that if America be the so-called 'melting pot' of the world, then Pennsylvania is the crucible of it—for all nationalities, all races and folk of all religious creed live in it.

Just for illustration purposes, the clubmen were told that Pennsylvania has more telephones in use than Cuba, the Central American countries, Mexico, Canada and several other smaller countries combined—and he cited it as one factor that determines the business complex of a nation.

Pennsylvania's highways he lauded as the best anywhere; her scenic beauty that covers 300-mile expanse of hills and lowlands he praised as comparable to the most gorgeous canyon of the west. "When the laurel blooms in Penn's Woods, where else would you want to turn for something more beautiful?" he asked. He said there are 125 varieties of trees here.

To show Pennsylvania's industrial might, he recited the fact that Pittsburgh's average industrial output each year would load a train long enough to encircle the world at the Equator. And he added that Pittsburgh is only a part of it.

"In the age of wood, in the age of iron and steel and in the newest age of concrete, Pennsylvania has always played her dominating part," the Kiwanians heard. "The field of finance has won a host of geniuses from this state."

Eloquent words of early history impressed the clubmen of their state's importance, for the speaker in closing, reminded them that it was within the bound of Penn's Woods that the deciding trend of the early colonial nation was recorded.

William Penn, whose 250th anniversary of his arrival here was celebrated last month, was termed the first Kiwanian by the speaker, because "he built."

on with friends to Pittsburgh to see the Notre Dame, Pitt football game. Thais Brunton, of Gardner entertained a group of friends on Saturday evening at a Halloween party in her home. The house was beautifully decorated in Halloween colors and these were carried out in games and dainty refreshments. Those enjoying this happy party were Francis Alexander, Kenneth Robb, Charlie Watkins, Betty Davis, Charles Walker, Emory Myers, Dorothy Hay, Francis Harkless, Stella Sacrapani, Eileen Evans, and Thais Brunton.

Mrs. Frank M. Hay is superintendent of the Gardner Sunday school and also teaches a class of little folks, and gave a Halloween party for her class on Friday evening. It was a merry group which arrived clad in grotesque costumes and masked faces. The children had great fun trying to identify each other, after which games were played and Mrs. Hay and her daughter Marian served refreshments. Those present were Jack Morrow, Harriet McGary, Dorothy Robison, Dale and Clifford Robb, Mary and Charlie Zorens, Maxine and Junior Walker, Ruth Johnson, Billie Earl, Gladys, Sidney and Sylvia Moore, Louise, Robert and Mildred Hay.

The suit was brought by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Roessing, parents of the girl. They charge the car was driven negligently by James Remley of New Castle, a student at the college, when it struck a headwall near Blairsville on October 30, 1931.

Miss Roessing and Mary Jane Walsh, daughter of the dean, both students at Allegheny College, were in the car at the time and were injured. Miss Roessing died two days later.

TREAT A COLD IN THE FIRST STAGE —and You Nip It in the Bud!

A cold ordinarily progresses through three stages: The Dry Stage, the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, 1 to 3 days; the Mucous Secretion Stage. Relief in the first stage is far easier than in the later stages. In fact, it is taking chances to let a cold run beyond 24 hours.

As soon as you catch a cold the wise thing to do is to take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. This famous tablet stops a cold quickly because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels. It kills the cold germs and fever in the system. It relieves the headache and grippy feeling. It tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack. That is the treatment a cold requires!

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is effective, but harmless. Contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. For years it has been the reliance of thousands in all cases of colds and grippe. Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane-wrapped. Get it today. Resent a substitute.

Temple Services Friday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gonick Will Be Hosts To Congregation At Fellowship Hour

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct its next regular service on Friday evening, November 4, at 8 p. m., Rabbi Avery Jonah Grossfield officiating. The sermon will be based on the Portion of the Week.

The Saturday morning program includes Religious School classes from 9:30 to 11 o'clock, and Religious Services from 11 to 12 o'clock. Two members of the children's congregation—Morton Love and Florence Goldman—will take part in reading the prayers.

The flowers that will adorn the pupil this week end have been offered by Mrs. Nanette C. Linville, in loving memory of her husband, Dr. Montgomery Linville, the anniversary of whose death occurs this week, and by Mrs. A. Gonick, in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary.

After the Friday evening service, the members and friends will enjoy an hour of fellowship in the vestry rooms of the Temple; Mr. and Mrs. A. Gonick will be the hosts, in honor of Mr. Gonick's birthday.

Christmas Seal Committee Meets

Plans Are Made For The Distribution Of The Seals After Thanksgiving

Christmas Seal Committee of the Lawrence County Anti-Tuberculosis Society met Tuesday afternoon at the headquarters of the society in the City Mission Building on South Mercer street and discussed plans for the distribution and sale of the seals after Thanksgiving.

While it is planned to send letters containing a hundred seals as in former years to the heads of families and others, it is planned to place them in schools of the county outside the city in special tin box containers.

The sale of seals will be pushed to the fullest extent due to the fact that more than ever, is the work of the Lawrence County Anti-Tuberculosis Society necessary in the county.

TALK ELECTION RACE AT PHALANX SESSION

Little Republic Smiles At Winter

Bins And Cellars Are Filled With Supplies To Last Out Season

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 3.—Worried government heads seeking a solution to the present depression can find no more forceful example of the value of a "back to the soil" movement than the prosperity of the George Junior Republic here, where 58 citizens face the coming winter with a smile.

The republic has no bonded debt; taxes need no adjustment, for the citizens' contribution to the state is based on an arrangement of work which equalizes this problem.

In the republic's warehouses are 400 bushels of potatoes, 8,000 heads of cabbage, 400 bushels of apples, 12 bushels of dried corn, 500 cans of fruit and vegetables. Twenty head of hogs and three beef cattle will supply meat. The republic has 24 head of milk cows with 1,000 bushels of feed to insure their wintering.

The republic is an outstanding example of what can be accomplished by community groups working in harmony with a common purpose.

Japan is going to help those Manchurians set up an independent state if she has to shoot the last one.

SEES HOOVER WIN IN NORTHERN TIER
MERCER, Pa., Nov. 3.—With the exception possibly of two counties that are now in doubt, Republican party leaders claim Hoover and the state and county tickets will carry every county in North-western Pennsylvania.

Congressman T. C. Cochran who has just completed a survey of the six counties in the twentieth congressional district predicts that Hoover will be a strong favorite with voters on November 8th.

(POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT)

ISSUES or PERSONALITIES?

This campaign is not essentially a contest between Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency. If the personality of either or both men were the only thing involved, then the result might not be as important as it is.

This campaign means the difference between two philosophies of government, the one a protective tariff which protects the American workman from competition with the low waged European and Asiatic.

The Republican Party stands for protection of the American workmen. It has always stood for it. It believes that the American workman should not have to compete against the low priced workers of the other parts of the world and in order to compensate the difference between the two has built a high protective tariff wall between this nation and the rest of the world.

The Democratic Party has declared for a "competitive tariff for revenue only" whatever that means. Roosevelt has failed utterly to explain it, so have the other Democratic speakers. Can it mean anything else than a tariff which will put American workmen in direct competition with the cheap labor of the other countries? and thus permit the flooding of American markets with cheap goods?

Japanese pottery workers, German steel workers, and all the other workers of European and Asiatic countries receive wages that are but a fraction of Americans in similar lines. Will you tear down the wall of protection and flood us with goods manufactured at low costs?

True there is a depression, true there are men and women out of employment, but would not the destruction of the protective tariff wall but add to the condition.

The very fact that there is a tariff wall has kept American plants going as much as they have. Destroy that wall and you ruin American manufacturers and add to the unemployment situation.

This is an industrial community. The commodities made here are likewise made in other countries but at a much lowered cost of production due to low wages.

Will you vote to continue the Republican policy of protection or will you permit the Democratic policy of hurling personalities instead of issues and facts, to sway your vote?

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE,
George T. Weingartner, Chairman,
T. W. McCullough, Secretary.

Sixty Four Freshmen Men Pledged To Fraternities

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 3.—Sixty-four of the 104 freshmen men at Westminster college have accepted bids to the five fraternities on the campus, Dean Charles Freeman announces. The pledging of the freshmen came at the end of the "rush" and "silent" periods, and it is possible, Dr. Freeman says, that 20 or 21 others will accept invitations to join the Greek-letter organizations.

Schmitt, Tarentum, and Lloyd Garrett, West Middlesex.

Epworth League To Have Fall Rally

New Castle Sub-District Of Methodist Churches Will Meet In First Church

The Epworth Leagues of New Castle sub-district of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their annual fall rally and election of officers on Friday evening, Nov. 4th, at 7:45 p. m. The place of meeting will be the First M. E. church on Jefferson street, New Castle. This organization embraces 600 young people of the denomination and it is expected that a good attendance will be on hand.

The program will consist of various types of entertainment, presented by the leagues in attendance, each league selecting its own offering.

Dr. N. A. White of First church will conduct the opening devotions and Dr. J. A. Gailbraith of Epworth church will bring a brief address at the close of the program. The election and installation of officers will be under the direction of Dr. W. A. Womer, president of the district League.

Martin Predicts Hoover Lead Will Be Half Million

Republican State Chairman Says Hoover Will Win Easily In Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 3.—Predicting a margin of almost a half million votes for President Hoover, General Edward Martin, Republican state chairman, Wednesday asserted that "the march to back up the chief executive is most impressive."

General Martin again predicted that Pennsylvania not only will give the president its electoral vote by a "great majority" but that the state ticket and the Republican candidates for congress will be successful. He also forecast big Republican majorities in both branches of the legislature.

SET MILK QUOTA AT 300 GALLONS

Daily Supply Boosted To Meet New Demand; Mission In Charge

Increased overnight from 50 gallons to 300 gallons, the daily milk supply for New Castle's needy, distributed each afternoon at the City Rescue Mission, promised to ease a large part of the burden of keeping tables of needy families supplied for the coming winter.

Superintendent B. J. Watkins, in behalf of the City Mission and the Mayor's Relief Committee, said 300 gallons will be distributed between 4 and 5 o'clock each afternoon to those who prove themselves to be deserving of it. A special card from the center that gives them relief must be shown before the milk will be given them.

Watkins said applicants must take with them to the mission the vessels with which to carry the milk away. Milk distribution commenced about a week ago with the distribution of 50 gallons. It will continue so long as the need exists.

Fire Loss During October Is Given

Most Of Loss Sustained When Korzek Home On Randolph Street Burns

Fire loss in the city during October amounted to $5,653.75, the report of Fire Chief H. Claire Stockman shows. Practically all this loss resulted when the home of Mrs. Anna Korzek of Randolph street was practically destroyed during the night of October 15, with an estimated loss of $5,500.

In addition to the local alarms answered, firemen were asked to render assistance in two fires outside the city, in one instance saving a Shenango township home from destruction. In the other case a barn in South New Castle, Pa. burned to the ground, firemen being unable to render any aid because of a lack of proper facilities. The loss outside the city amounted to $1,100.

Twenty alarms in all were answered two of these being for one fire. Four fires occurred from defective wiring or backfiring of carburetors in automobiles. In one case the firemen were called to extinguish the fire in the boiler of a locomotive that had become derailed.

Two alarms resulted from smoke caused by defective smoke pipes, and there was one false alarm and one grass fire.

SHORTHAND CLASS MEETING TONIGHT

At 7 o'clock this evening the class in shorthand review will meet in the Y. W. C. A. Green Room for more instruction. This class, which meets every Thursday evening, is composed of girls and women who have studied shorthand but who have no opportunity to keep up in speed.

Gargled Constantly. Bad Breath Still

He couldn't understand why nothing helped until a friend suggested, "It might be your stomach!" And it was—clogged intestines that invariably spread poisonous wastes through the system and lead to upset stomach, colds, lack of energy, biliousness, etc. What a difference when he took NR (Nature's Remedy). Regular bowel action thereafter. He felt purged up inside. And breath became pure as spring air. That's because NR stimulates the entire intestinal tract to normal function. Stockman Asks Cooperation In Fire Prevention

Enumerates Various Fire Hazards Which Can Be Eliminated By Citizens

Instead of merely observing Fire Prevention Week, during six days of the year, Fire Chief H. Claire Stockman urges citizens to make every day Fire Prevention day, and to aid in looking out for fire hazards, which can be eliminated.

Each month, Chief Stockman plans to call attention to some particular fire hazard which is most prominent at that period of the year, and tell how to eliminate it.

The bulletin for November, follows:

"Frequent fires each year, due to defective heating and lighting apparatus, suggest the importance of a special warning, at this time, when many heating equipments are being put into service, after their disuse since spring.

New Castle Driver Has A Lively Time With Pie And Truck

Chris Makris Loses Control Of His Truck When Pie Hits Him On Head

A bakery truck owned by Nick Frangessaki of 120 Long avenue, New Castle, driven by Chris Makris, 36, of New Castle, was proceeding toward Butler on Wednesday.

Makris was driving down the Cranmer hill when suddenly a pie bounced off the rack and struck Makris on the head.

Attempting to remove the pastry from the back of his neck and head, Makris lost control of the truck, which plunged across the road and struck a guard post at the foot of the hill.

Makris, in an attempt to right the car, pulled quickly to the right and the truck overturned, slid about 50 feet along the road on its side, crashed into the guard posts on the other side of the road and then whirled into the concrete bridge at the foot of the hill.

Pies, doughnuts and cakes were scattered over a wide area as the truck finally came to rest. The cherry pies in the back were splattered over the side of the bridge, leading to the belief that some one had been seriously injured.

No one was seriously injured at all, Highway Patrolman H. A. Stevens, who investigated the accident, stated. Makris received a cut on his arm.

The truck was damaged to the amount of $250.

New Castle Ready For Class AA Game Saturday

New Kensington High Scheduled For Local Field

New Castle High School Hopes To Get By New Kensington Hurdle

BOTH TEAMS ARE UNBEATEN TO DATE

All that activity you see up around Taggart Field every afternoon is the New Castle High School "Red Hurricane" football machine being tested out for the biggest game on the schedule, which is listed for this Saturday at Taggart Field, and which will feature the powerful New Kensington High team as the opponents. Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh is not getting much sleep this week. New Castle's toughest game awaits them. The kickoff Saturday is at 2:30 o'clock.

New Castle must win Saturday or be relegated to the heap of also rans. Seven victories have been chalked up by eleven stalwart sons of Pa. New, and they want to make it eight, but before that eighth game is in the bag it will call for a lot of heavy footballing. This New Castle team has not yet opened up with all the power they possess. Coach Bridenbaugh may turn on the heat to accommodate New Kensington High followers.

May Upset Locals
The Aluminium town boys believe that they have an unbeatable team, and are willing to lay it on the line that they will ston this New Castle powerhouse attack. Well all they have to do is to get passed such huskies as Raskowski, Shelloge brothers, DeCarbo and Duff, and that's a man sized job in anybody's football game. And then if they decide to try the terminals, they will find Thomas and Tomalelo awaiting them and a not too pleasant afternoon will be had by all and sundry. And to top this all off should they break through that New Castle front wall, and there are many of them doing that this year, then they will face Walter Kominie, one of the toughest secondary defense men that New Castle has had for some while, and backing "Komy" up will be Nickum or Lane, Uram and Rambo.

Have Good Records
Captain Roxie Belli will lead an awfully confident New Kensington High team in New Castle. They have won five games and tied one. The deadlock game was with the strong McKeesport High team. New Kensington has beaten Indiana High, Norwin, Wilkinsburg, Har-Brae and Tarentum. Coach Clark Glock will have his hands full this week. This Ken High crew wants to step right out from under him when he turns on the power.
New Castle's record to date is seven victories over the following teams—Union Township, McKees Rocks, Charleroi, Coraopolis, Washington, Ellwood City and Altoona. Both teams have played an imposing lot of teams.

Expect Big Crowd
This game Saturday, which by the way is the first daylight venture for the locals this year on the local field, will draw a big crowd. In the event of cool, crisp November day, the turnstiles at the field will click merrily as the fans jam their way into the stadium. New Kensington will be closed for the afternoon, and the town will be moved, bag and baggage to the Lawrence County metropolis.

The same prices will prevail for this semi-championship game as for the other games. If you are waiting to see the best game on the New Castle schedule your wait will be over Saturday afternoon.
The New Castle team will wear their black jerseys again so as to not conflict with the colors worn by New Kensington.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Princeton's varsity went through a stiff 60 minutes scrimmage yesterday with the freshman team in preparation for Saturday's game with Lehigh and it looks as though Bill Marks, formerly of Kiski, may get a chance at right end and Charlie Wardell may play quarterback.

Rapid development of Bernard Oriss and Bog Gross, halfbacks who had no college experience prior to this year has given Coach Amos some relief in the ball carrying department of Grove City who will play Geneva at Grove City Saturday.

Among the games which will be watched for Saturday is the Holy Cross-Brown game. Neither team has been beaten. Brown, which is coached by Tuss McLaughry has won from Harvard, Yale, Tufts, Rhode Island and Springfield and the big test will come Saturday.

Coach Jack Sutherland will take 34 Panthers from Pittsburgh enroute tonight to Philadelphia where Saturday the Pitt eleven will play Penn which is coached by two former local boys, Harvey Harmon and Alec Fox.

Jack Hagerty's system of football will come under a test Saturday when Georgetown tackles West Virginia. Hagerty's system is a combination of the Warner-Little systems. He recently became mentor for the Georgetown team.

Snow Falls In East Brook Area
Hunters of small game found yesterday a little more difficult than the opening day to shoot game and plenty of them returned without the limit in rabbits and without birds.
One hunter said that he had virtually "kick out rabbits" and that during the morning snow fell in the East Brook district.

Ketterer May Start Against Thiel Saturday

Coach Lawther May Start Rochester Boy At Half-back Post

ARROWSMITH OR SWEENEY QUARTER

KETTERER - HALF

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 3.—If his showing in scrimmages held Monday and Tuesday mean anything, Cromwell "Joe" Ketterer, Rochester, Pa., lad, will start at left halfback for Westminster in the game with Thiel here Saturday.

Ketterer is one of the fastest men on the Titan team. He was inserted into the line-up against Waynesburg last Saturday in the last quarter, where he was not able to shake off Jacket tacklers. Once in the open, however, and he is good for a touchdown.

Young Looks Good
If Ketterer is started at halfback, either Sweeney or Arrowsmith will be at quarter. In all probability both of these men will see action at quarter during part of the contest. Staples and Scarbrough will hold down the fullback and right halfback posts.

Wait Young is another halfback who has been playing good ball in this week's scrimmages. Young may also see action against the Lutherans.

The varsity team, composed of Leyschock and Hunneke at end, Bloker at center, Hollander and Rose at guard, Captain Rehfus and Dishong at tackle, Sweeney alternating with Arrowsmith at quarter, Ketterer at left half, Scarbrough at right half and Staples at full, defeated the second team 19-0 Tuesday afternoon. Touchdowns were made by Ketterer on a 30-yard end run; Rehfus, on a 69-yard intercepted pass, and Hunneke, on a forward pass. Hunneke place-kicked one extra point.

The game with Thiel Saturday is the last home contest for the Titans. Seven games have already been played, the Titans winning three and losing four. Following the Thiel game, Muskingum will be met at New Concord, O., on November 12 and Geneva will be played at Beaver Falls on November 19.

Williams To Play At Youngstown

Williams football team of the South Side, members of the City football league will play their first night game at Youngstown, Ohio, next Wednesday, it was announced by Coach Keith VanFossan today. The Williams will play the Hy-Vis team at Idora Park.

Business Manager Haydon Jones wants Bruce Alexander, Severa and Nelson who played with the Croton team to call him at 9263. The Williams team consists of former New Castle High stars such as—Luke Rowe, Jones, Brown, George Mike, Jimmy Mike, Harris, Babs, Norman Nocera, Gibson, Parker, Myler, Adamo, Phil Adams, Mehalic, Neyman, Blazzo, Miron, Severa, J. Lewis, J. Abraham.

The Hy-Vis are the Class A league champs of Youngstown. The Williams are holding the practice sessions every day this week at the Clifton Flats field at 5 o'clock. Chuck Myler, former Westminster star end will be in the Williams lineup.

Correct this sentence: "He is a great philanthropist," said the woman, "so I know he won't put us out just because we can't pay the rent."

Shenango Is Ready For Union Contest

Sometime before 6 o'clock Friday evening, the class B football championship of Lawrence county will have been decided, and two football teams will have fresh material for argument during the coming winter months. The Shenango township-Union township tilt takes place on Shenango field at East New Castle at 3:30 and no college team in the country is more anxious tonight than the two schoolboy teams.

The annual competition between the two schools isn't of so many years' duration. Only three years ago Shenango township began playing football and Union but a short time before that. However, in those three years there has been a spirit of rivalry developed that has an edge as keen as a razor blade.

Union Winner
Union township has been the winner in all three of the contests previously played. Several causes have been responsible for the defeats of the three past years but this year the Shenango township fans insist that things are going to be different. They point to the record of the team for the season, and if you have time will cheerfully go into detailed reasons why they expect to win.

It is true that Shenango has had an elegant year. Thus far none of their opponents has been able to come close to defeating her. Union on the other hand has dropped a couple but they have been to opponents primed for the occasion. The only point of comparison is the game with Zellenople which both teams have played. Shenango defeated Zellenople and Zellenople defeated Union.

All of this would make it appear that Shenango had a fairly good chance to win Friday. This is one game, however, when the hope may be spilled all over East New Castle. Union is mad after two straight defeats and the coach, Dave Morgan Boyd, has left the boys in no doubt as to what he expects them to do. If they lose to Shenango it will be only after a football game that the fans will remember for some time.

Craig Out.
Shenango will start the game without the services of Captain Craig, a lineman. In the game with Mercer he injured his foot and has been out ever since. It is extremely doubtful if he will get in at all tomorrow and his absence makes the line a little weaker than it normally would be.

Union Ready To Battle Shenango High On Friday

Coach Boyd Gives Union Final Polishing Today For Class B Game

UNION ELEVEN IS SHAKEN UP

A hard fighting Union High School football team will end their training this afternoon for the battle with Shenango High Friday afternoon at the East New Castle field.

noon at the East New Castle field. Union wants to make a good showing against their Class B opponent. Shenango High is unbeaten, and playing great football. Union has lost five games this year and won two. There is liable to be an upset tomorrow afternoon.

Union May Surprise
Coach Dave Boyd had his Union team in mid-season form for the New Castle game, the first encounter on the 1932 program and they have been on the down grade ever since, but Coach Boyd believes that his team will rise to new heights against Shenango, and it would not be surprising to find the two teams battling even.

On paper this Shenango High team looks to be about three or four touchdowns better than Union, but you can never tell about this paper business. In Arnold and Lochner Shenango has two of the fastest halfbacks in Class B football. Zeebeck is the smartest little quarterback that Shenango has ever had. His judgment on the plays is fine. Seetch at fullback is going to be a hard man to stop.

Union was considerably used up in that doubleheader last week when they lost to Zellenople and Freedom on two successive days. Luckily Union came out of those tough games without any serious injuries. Union will be at full strength tomorrow afternoon. Captain Walter Sniezek is ready for the best game of his career. The Union backfield will feature Phillips the hard hitting fullback, Monico and Bozar at the halves and Morrison or Buccia at quarter.

Shenango Is Strong
Shenango's big powerful line charges fast and furious, and Union's linemen will have to be at their best to stop the Raney coached team. Union will have considerable difficulty in getting around those clever Shenango ends. The terminals at Shenango are acclaimed the best in the county. Union will try to hold the Shenango team to as low a score as possible.

It looks like a real game tomorrow at Shenango High field, one of the best of the year, and with good weather prevailing a monster crowd will watch these rival Class B teams in action.

Shenango and Union both ended their signal drills today, and await the battle Friday with an enthusiasm that spells good football.

A new supreme court isn't pork. You can tell pork by the fact that it makes rival regions beef.

Great Backs To Perform In East

Heller, Pitt; Perina, Penn; Bush, Massachusetts State, Will Be Watched

By COPELAND C. BURG International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Frost isn't quite full on the pumpkin yet and it's a little bit early to do much talking about All-American football candidates, but we can do a rave today about our favorite nominee, because he won't get mentioned in any other place at any time, anyway.

He's little Lou Bush, that Massachusetts State pint-size halfback, who is now leading eastern point scorers and just got nosed out of the lead at the end of last season.

Weights 140 Pounds
For his size, it doesn't seem there's another player in the country as shifty and as sure a ground gainer as Lou, who makes an eel look like he was hampered by pontoons.

Bush has scored more than 200 points in his college career to date and has one more year to perform. He hopes to bring his total of points scored up to 400.

Heller-Perina
Two great backs will perform in the Pitt-Penn game in Philadelphia on Saturday. They are Heller of Pitt and Perina of Penn.

Heller is the triple-threat back, suddenly converted into a blocking back. He caused all kinds of troubles for the Army, which went down before the Panthers after Heller ran 56-yards for a touchdown and then passed the ball to Skladany, Pitt's really great end, for a second touchdown. He also threw the ball into position for the third score.

Carl Perina, the Red and Blue fullback, is nursing a bruised side and will not be at his best against Pitt. Jack Edwards, who will take his place if Perina can't stand the Gaff, owing to his injury, is hardly the man that Perina is.

Break In Wheat To New Low Record Unsettles Stock Market Today

STEEL HOLDING CLOSE TO LINE

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A break in wheat to new record lows in Chicago today further depressed the stock market, unsettled by yesterday's sharp decline.

A supporting influence was the payment of the regular dividend by General Motors. This served to keep the first hour decline in narrow limits.

Railroad stocks, yesterday's weak spots, worked lower as the bonds continued to sag. Southern Pacific received a temporary stimulus from the optimistic statement of its president on business, but this was off quickly.

There were a number of firm spots. U. S. Steel common managed to hold around its previous close despite weakness in the preferred.

United Aircraft was aided by announcement that 30,000 more shares of the preferred would be retired.

General Motors was slightly higher on payment of the dividend, which supported Du Pont also.

Homestake Mining was a feature, spurring more than 3 points to a new record high.

Utilities were inclined to sag. Oil and mining shares were dull, while most markets were.

Leaders like American Telephone and Allied Chemical showed better resistance than yesterday. Farm implements and mail shares were depressed by weakness in wheat.

Trading showed a marked contraction from the selling wave in the last hour yesterday, when volume exceeded 600,000 shares.

ROCKEFELLER WEDDING NOV. 11

Miss Blanchette F. Hooker, one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of John D. Rockefeller III and Miss John D. Rockefeller III, daughter of John D. Rockefeller III, and Miss John D. Rockefeller III, daughter of John D. Rockefeller III.

New York's outstanding social event of the year is the wedding of John D. Rockefeller III, grandson of the aged oil king. They will be married at the fashionable Riverside (Rockefeller) church by the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

No Soloing for This Couple

What can a mere man do? When Leland Hayward, son of Col. William Hayward of New York, decided to take up flying, his wife, Lora, agreed that it was an excellent idea—for both. So here we see Mr. and Mrs. Hayward receiving their private pilot's licenses at Roosevelt Field, N. Y., from Federal Inspector Harwood. "Not a solo in a skyful" said Mr. Hayward.

A "wild man" is any new Senator who hasn't money enough to let it do his talking.

Burgoo is a name used in some parts of the United States for bar-becue.

ELLWOOD CITY NEWS

Woman Dies While Visiting Son Here

Mother Of W. R. Johnston Dies Of Sudden Heart Attack Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—An unexpected heart attack caused the sudden death of Mrs. Amelia Graham Johnston, aged 82, at the home of her son, W. R. Johnston of 217 Fountain avenue, this city, about 11:30 last night.

The deceased was just completing a few days visit at the home of her son and was making preparations to return to Greenville, Pa., when the heart attack came on.

Besides her son she leaves one daughter, Mrs. T. R. Thorn of Greenville with whom she has been living for the past 25 years or more, and one sister, Mrs. Martha Myer of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services have been arranged for Saturday afternoon at 1:30 and will be held from the home of her son William at 217 Fountain avenue. Burial will take place at the Uniondale cemetery in North Side, Pittsburgh, where she was born.

Kampers Klub Guests Of Mrs. Parthemore

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Harry Parthemore was a delightful hostess to the members of the Kampers Klub at its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at her home in Knox. Mrs. James Barton of Butler, one of the members of the club, was present at the time.

A delicious tureen dinner inaugurated the events of the day. Following this the nine members enjoyed an afternoon of games and contests. Mrs. Rae Chambers was delightfully surprised by the club members at this time. This being the month of her birthday anniversary the club members presented her with a fine birthday cake and a beautiful gift. The next meeting of the club will take place during the first week of December at a place to be determined later.

Inter-Church Cast To Present Play

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—People in Ellwood City will be given an opportunity to leave their worries behind them this evening when they attend the play, "Kleptomaniac," at the Lincoln auditorium, which is to be presented by an inter-church cast.

The characters in the play will feature some familiar faces who have had strong roles in previous home talent plays.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS REVIVAL MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—A fine turnout featured the revival meeting at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church last night where the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Berger, delivered an inspiring sermon. A special number has been arranged for tonight's meeting. The Steele sisters will render a number of vocal selections.

STAMP CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—The regular meeting of the newly organized Stamp club of this city will be held in room 108 of the Lincoln high school from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday.

Start Construction Work On Bridge

Contractor Begins Work On Second New Bridge At Wurttemberg

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—Preliminary construction work has been started on what is known as the second bridge on Route 488 across the Slippery Rock creek at Wurttemberg. The contract was let on October 7 to the Cline Construction Company of Butler. This bridge is but a short distance west of the bridge on which construction work is now being done.

According to plans for the second bridge the construction of approximately 1,502 feet of roadway. This will eliminate bad curves on either side. The bridge is to be a double truss span about 319 feet long with an 18 foot paved cartway. Abutments will also be of concrete.

Ewing Park Club Members Assemble

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—Members of the Ewing Park club assembled at the home of Miss Minnie Jenkins on Second street last night for their regular meeting with all present. Miss Annabelle Sanders was a special guest on the occasion.

Bridge at three tables occupied the attention of the guests for the greater portion of the evening at the conclusion of which Mrs. Percy Lytle and Mrs. Carl Murphy received the prizes. Miss Sanders was presented with a guest award.

At a later hour the hostess assisted by Mrs. Dal Turner, served a delectable menu, much to the satisfaction of those present.

Mrs. A. P. Jordan will entertain the club in two weeks at her home in Foch street.

Mrs. Ralph White Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Ralph White was hostess to the members of the S. O. B. Club last night at her home on Franklin avenue at its first fall meeting.

Those present thoroughly enjoyed the evening around the two tables of bridge at play, at the conclusion of which Mrs. Jess Daugherty and Mrs. Clarence Fetterman received the club awards. An added feature of the meeting was the serving of a luncheon by the hostess with aid of Mrs. John Bloom and Irene and Virginia White. Beautiful fall flowers were used as appointments about the home.

The next meeting of the club will take place in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Clyde Bemen on Pershing street.

KOPPEL

FUNERAL SERVICES

C. F. Mount, 75, one of Koppel's oldest and best known citizens, was buried from the home of his son, Charles, on Wednesday at twenty-three. Mr. Mount died in a local hospital on Monday after suffering for several weeks with a severe stroke of paralysis. Mr. Mount had formerly been a professor in a college in Iowa, after which he worked at several other professions and then came to Koppel, where he has resided since.

He is survived by his wife who is also suffering from a stroke, and one son, Charles, of Koppel.

The funeral was in charge of Rev. Sherman L. Burson. A trio consisting of Mr. and Mrs. William Shields of Ellwood City and Mrs. S. L. Burson rendered several vocal selections.

RETURNS HOME

After spending several weeks at the home of her two daughters in Racine, Wisconsin, Mrs. William Hall of third avenue, returned to her home on Monday evening. Mrs. Hall had the unfortunate luck of being ill during the most of her visit, having suffered from pneumonia and pleurisy. She was visiting at the home of Mrs. A. W. Donahoe and Mrs. Roy Groves, her two daughters. She motored home with Mr. and Mrs. William Schlusser and Fred Hall of Ellwood City who made a special trip there to bring her home. She is feeling very much improved and is expected to be well soon again.

KOPPEL NOTES

Louis Koppala spent several days with his daughter in Fallston.

E. W. H. Members Meet Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 3

Installation Is Held By Vets Post And Ladies

Past National Officers Are Present At Ceremony In Legion Home Building

NEW APPOINTEE OFFICERS NAMED

With many visitors present, the newly elected officers of the Harry L. McBride post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their ladies' auxiliary were inducted into office with formal ceremonies at a joint session of the two organizations.

A short business meeting was held at 7:30 by the McBride post, after which the meeting was closed and the two posts joined in the joint ceremony.

T. John Stoner, past commander of the McBride post, served as installing officer and administered the oath to the newly-elected commander, A. F. Miller, at which time the full complement of elective and appointive officers were installed in their positions. He also presented Past Commander J. F. LaRue with his past president's badge.

The complete list of new post officers follows:
Commander, A. F. Miller; senior vice commander, George Christoph; junior vice commander, Arnold Fishburn; quartermaster, Clarence A. Leslie; chaplain, Leslie Wooley; officer of the day, Charles Marshall; trustee, Frank Connors; adjutant, J. F. LaRue; guard, Joseph Palk; color bearers, Garland S. Crites and Chas. Nolan.

State Officer Officials.
Mrs. Ida Mae Stanford of Pittsburgh, past state president of the ladies' auxiliary, served as installing officer for the ladies. She was assisted by Mrs. Genevieve Schaaf of Pittsburgh, state treasurer, as installing conductress.

Other national officers and visitors present included Mrs. Twila Bolt of Sharon, state conductress; Mrs. Jessie Arnfield, Pittsburgh, state publicity chairman; Mrs. Emile Kane, Pittsburgh, state guard; Mrs. Ellen Smith, president, and Mrs. Hazel Emme, Mrs. Linnie Callen, Mrs. Anna Pitcher and Mrs. Young of the James Noble post auxiliary of Altoona; Mrs. Jane Whitlatch and Mrs. Celia White of Sharon.

The high esteem in which the past president, Mrs. Evelyn Woods, is held by the members of the auxiliary was attested by the beautiful gifts she received from the members of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Emma Claple presented Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Adella Evans, the incoming president in turn presented the installing officers with gifts.

Mrs. Evans named her appointive officers and standing committee for the year, as follows:
Secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Woods; historian, Olive Lonestret; patriotic instructor, Mabel Kennedy; banner bearer, Elsie Fredericks; color bearers, Irene McCune, Marguerite Cowperwaite, Flossie Potter and Viola Ryhal; standing committee, Mrs. Belle Whiteman, Rebecca Strong, Gwendolyn Thomas, Regina Norris and Catherine Ayers; musician, Leone Smith; flower committee, Mrs. Sarah McClafferty; relief chairman, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller.

The elective officers installed were Mrs. Adella Evans, president; Mrs. Etta Keelan, senior vice president; Mrs. Ethel Bell, junior vice president; Mrs. Nellie Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Connor, chaplain; Mrs. Tempa Stickle, conductress; and Mrs. Anna Conella, guard.

Railroad Men Hear Candidates

Meeting Is Held On Wednesday Night At City Hall —
Adopt By-Laws

Interest in the Railroad Employees and Citizens League of Pennsylvania seems to be on the increase in New Castle. The third floor assembly room in the City Hall was hardly large enough to accommodate the crowd present Friday night when the Constitution and by-laws of the organization were adopted.

The meeting period was given over to hearing the views of candidates for public office in the matter of legislation concerning trucks. Candidates for congress, state senate, and the general assembly were heard and the hearing of them took up the most of the meeting time.

President J. Herbert McIlvenny impressed upon the members present the necessity of aligning every railroad employee and his friend in the new organization and asked that a special effort be made to have a large number of new members at the next meeting.

MISSIONARY TO BE SUNDAY SPEAKER AT ROCKY SPRING

Miss Emma Dean Anderson, a United Presbyterian missionary for over 50 years to India, will deliver the thank offering address at the Rocky Spring U. P. church next Sunday morning, November 6, at 11 o'clock. Miss Anderson is well known throughout the United Presbyterian church by her letters every week for nearly 50 years in Youth's Evangelist.

All friends will be welcome to attend the service next Sunday, Nov. 6, at 11 o'clock. Sabbath school at 10 o'clock. R. S. McAnlis, superintendent.

One of the readers of this end of the paper sends word in that he won two hundred dollars on the Pitt-Notre Dame game last Saturday. Which sounds good on the face of it but is explained this way. He wanted to place two hundred on Jimmy De Lawrence had the experience of shooting a nice big Rhode Island Red rooster, in mistake for a ring necked pheasant. That's his story anyway. And the rooster is dead.

Some of the hunting tales coming in are rather weird to say the least. Jimmy De Lawrence had the experience of shooting a nice big Rhode Island Red rooster, in mistake for a ring necked pheasant. That's his story anyway. And the rooster is dead.

Friday is the day of the big battle of East New Castle, when the Class B championship of the county will be decided. The teams, Shenango and Union townships and don't think it won't be a football game. For three years the Union lads have made Shenango like it but this year they claim things are going to be different.

And if Shenango should win that mythical championship, the well known welkin will do more than ring, out beyond Cascade Park. The darn thing will probably crack wide open.

And then on Saturday, New Kensington comes to New Castle for the express purpose of upsetting what Doctor Walther has so aptly nicknamed the Red Hurricane, sometimes known as New Castle high school. Usually the boys from the Allegheny Valley are plenty tough and this year is no exception. When the whistle blows the game off on Taggart Field Saturday afternoon a lot of people will have seen what will probably be the best Class AA game of the entire season.

It just occurs to us that if those rabbits that made life so miserable for a lot of amateur gardeners this spring would come out into the open and fight like men just now, all those ruined plants just in May and June would be compensated.

REPORTS LOSS OF FINE TURKEY HEN

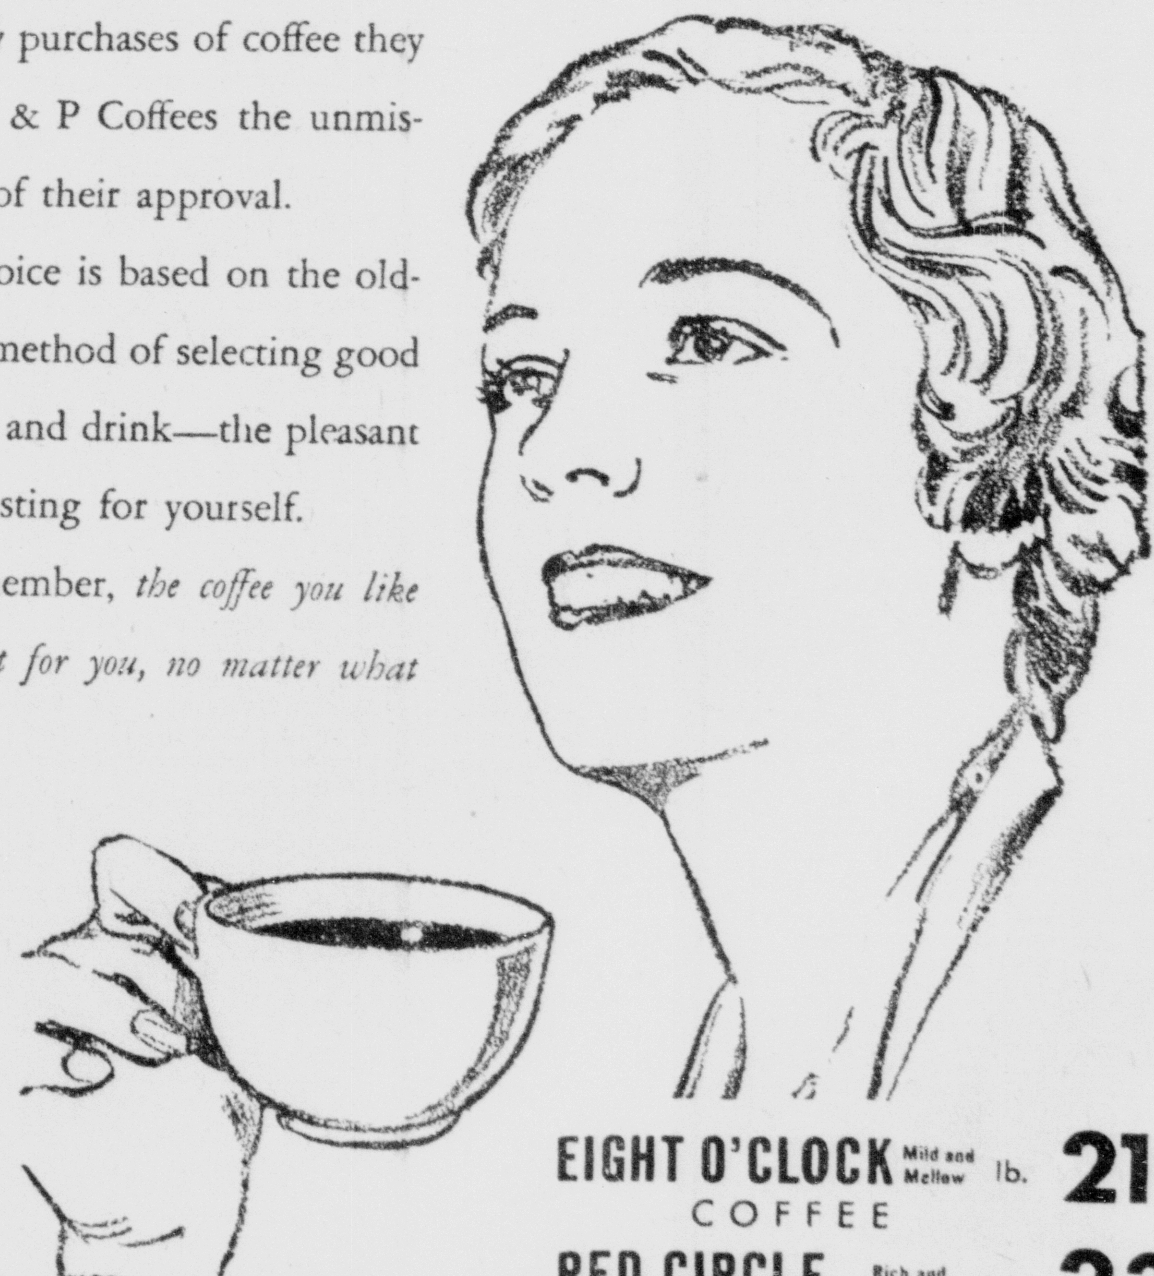

Mrs. B. H. Hitchcock of the Pulaski highway, has reported the loss of a fine turkey hen from her premises. She reports that this is not the only theft of the kind recently in that district and the people of the district feel that something must be done to put a stop to this condition.

HER VOTE DECIDES the COFFEE question

More women buy the A & P Coffee Trio than any other three coffees. By their daily purchases of coffee they put upon A & P Coffees the unmistakable seal of their approval.

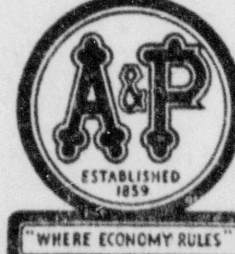

Their choice is based on the oldest and best method of selecting good things to eat and drink—the pleasant method of tasting for yourself.

And remember, the coffee you like best is the best for you, no matter what it costs.
